Indict five in Stix case

By GARY SCHNEIDER
Press-Record Editor

Carefully worked statements that the government may be withdrawing its "deal" with Thomas Brimberry of Granite City were contained Thursday in indictments and informational documents formally charging five persons besides Brimberry of wrongdoings in connection with the collapse of the Stix & Co. stock brokerage in St. Louis.

James Massa, a Collinsville attorney; Arthur Miller Jr. of Granite City, Brimberry's brother-in-law; Duane Skinner, an accountant and former Pontoon Beach trustee; and Leonard Bednar, a former vice president of Stix & Co. were indicted by a federal grand jury and Jerry S. Maeras, an insurance and real estate salesman, was charged in an informational document with conspiring to defraud the U.S. government, securities fraud and mail fraud.

The joint announcement of the charges, made by United States Attorneys Thomas E. Dittmeier of the Eastern District of Missouri and Frederick J. Heiser of the Southern District of Illinois, stated, "...although a plea agreement had originally been negotiated with Mr. Brimberry, information was obtained during the investigation which has caused both their offices to further evaluate that agreement." The full text of the joint statement appears inside today's Press-Record.

Brimberry was said to have agreed to plead guilty to one count of tax evasion in return for his full and truthful cooperation with federal authorities investigating the Stix collapse.

However, information contained in the indictments released Thursday indicate that Maeras also has been talking to investigators and may have made statements which have caused them to re-examine Brimberry's statements.

One of Maeras' attorneys, David Capes, said that Maeras "regrets the circumstances in which he finds himself today," and says he has cooperated with prosecutors and the special grand jury and "will continue to cooperate." Capes is quoted as saying that prosecutors agreed to charge

Maeras in an informational document, rather than have him indicted by a grand jury, as the result of his cooperation.

Maeras was arraigned Thursday before U.S. Magistrate David Noco and was released on $10,000 recognizance bond. His trial date was scheduled for Nov. 29.

Maeras surrendered to federal authorities about 10 a.m. Friday and was released on a $25,000 property bond, according to his attorney, Barry Short.

Miller surrendered to federal authorities Friday in Southern Illinois and was released on $10,000 bond. Skinner, 34, surrendered to FBI agents in Phoenix, Ariz., Thursday night and was released on $50,000 bond, authorities said.

The three are to be arraigned before U.S. District Judge John F. Nangle in St. Louis Tuesday.

Bond for Bednar was set at $10,000 and he was released Thursday, a short time after surrendering to authorities. He was to be arraigned today.

The main 39-count indictment against Massa, Miller and Skinner alleges that they conspired with Brimberry and Maeras to create false internal business records at Stix, made fictitious entries into the Stix records and increased the equity value of customer accounts to allow in excess of $16 million to be misappropriated from Stix.

"For the period ending Oct. 31, 1981, the records of Stix reflected that these (customer) accounts owed Stix an aggregate of over $30 million, purportedly collateralized by over $40 million of securities. In fact, over $40 million of these securities were nonexistent," the statement by the U.S. attorneys alleges.

Maeras, who could face a maximum of 145 years in prison, if found guilty, is charged with 12 counts of mail fraud, six counts of wire fraud, five counts of securities fraud, five counts of violating securities laws relating to the creation of false books and records and one count of conspiracy.

The indictment says that Miller maintained a customer account at Stix in which securities were bought and sold. Skinner, said in the indictment to be a certified public accountant, maintained the books and records and managed the affairs of various corporations and businesses, including Miller Excavating, Inc., LDN Investments and RTS Investments, the latter also called RTS Investments. Maeras is described as "an officer, director and shareholder of Miller Excavating and maintained at Brimberry's direction, two customer accounts at Stix in which securities were bought and sold."

It also alleges that Brimberry and Maeras, "co-conspirators but not as defendants in this indictment," along with Massa, Miller and Skinner, "unlawful, willfully and knowingly did, combine, conspire, confederate and agree, together and with each other and with other persons whose names are known and unknown to the grand jury, to commit certain offenses."

The indictment says that Miller maintained a customer account at Stix in which securities were bought and sold. Skinner, said in the indictment to be a certified public accountant,

The indictment

(The indictment against James Massa, Arthur Miller Jr. and Duane Skinner is 36 pages long and contains a great deal of detail. In order to give our readers as much of information as possible on this important case, the main indictment, the related indictment against Leonard Bednar and criminal informational documents against Jerry Maeras are being divided into two Press-Record issues.

(The first, appearing today, deals with chapters of the main indictment entitled "The Conspiracy," "Means and Methods of the Conspiracy," "The Stock Accounts," "The Proposed Nursing Home," "Acquiring Stix Stock" and three chapters on specific loan accounts.

(In this Thursday's Press-Record (Oct. 28), the grand jury's allegations about financing the Brimberry mansion in Granite City and Brimberry's property in Phoenix, Ariz., the formation of Miller Excavating Co., the Cottonwood Bank Account for Rimes, certain overt acts, and the other indictments and charges will be detailed.)

The indictments announced Thursday against James Massa, Arthur Miller Jr., Duane Skinner and Leonard Bednar and the felony information against Jerry Maeras (see related stories today) contained lengthy explanations how the grand jury feels that millions of dollars were withdrawn from padded Stix & Co. customer accounts and how that money was spent. The main indictment against Massa, Miller and Skinner is broken into 12 "chapters," each detailing a part of the story. A synopsis of those "chapters" follows.

THE MEANS AND METHODS

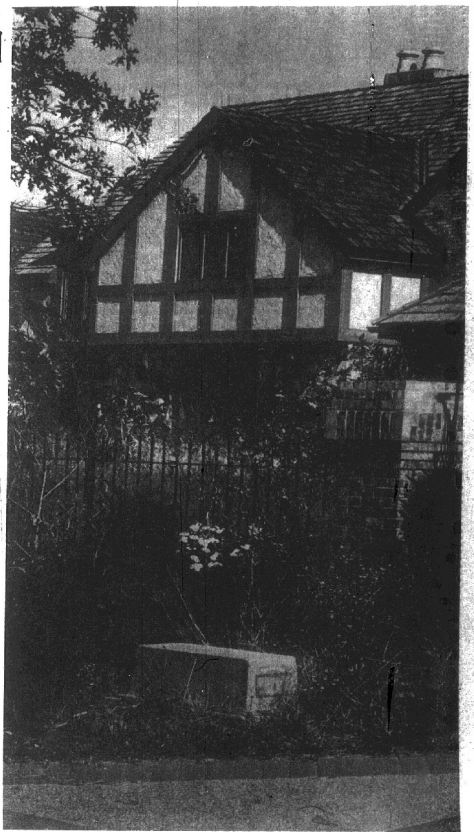

According to the indictment, false internal records were created at Stix for customer accounts directly or indirectly controlled by Massa, Miller, Brimberry and Maeras and fictitious entries were made to the customer monthly account statements to show the receipt of non-existent stock, thus increasing the equity value of the accounts and allowing the withdrawal of large amounts of money "for the personal benefit of the defendants and co-conspirators and others, while at the same time concealing the true business and financial condition of Stix from other Stix officers, directors and shareholders, the Securities and Exchange Commission, the NASD (National Association of Securities Dealers), the Midwest Stock Exchange, Stix's auditors, Stix's customers, the general business community and the public," the indictment charges.

It also alleges that they impeded the Internal Revenue Service in determining the proper federal income taxes owed by themselves and Stix.

THE STOCK ACCOUNTS

Massa maintained at least two customer accounts at Stix from about

END OF A DREAM. The deterioration of the stately mansion on Parkview Drive, built by Thomas Brimberry at a reported cost exceeding $1 million, is evident in this photo taken Friday afternoon. Brimberry allegedly is a central figure in the collapse of the Stix & Co. stock brokerage. Five persons were charged in the case, it was announced Thursday. Brimberry is listed, at this time, as a co-conspirator in the case. (Press-Record Photo by Patrick Foley)

Parades, parties among Halloween celebrations

by DONNA KIMBRIO
of the Press-Record

Celebrations for Halloween, the annual autumn observance, will feature parties, parades, and masquerade balls for both the younger and older generations during the week and weekend in the Quad-City area.

A Halloween parade, sponsored by the Lions Club of Pontoon Beach for children residing in that area, will begin at 2 p.m. Saturday at Gaslight Plaza Shopping Center.

Ghosts and goblins age 3 through 13 are being invited to participate in the event, but each must be accompanied by a parent.

Prizes will be awarded for first, second and third place in each of three age categories, according to Lions Renee Smith, parade director.

Highlight of the day will be the arrival of Chuck E. Cheese, Mr. Munch, Mr. Pasqually and Jasper T. Jowls from Pizza Time Theatre in St. Peters, Mo. They will distribute prizes and greet the young contestants.

The annual downtown Granite City costume parade, under the auspices of Moose Lodge 272, is to begin at 7 p.m.

Saturday in front of the city hall, Niedringhaus and Edison avenues, according to Moose Governor Jim Tadlock.

Three judges will select winners in three categories, according to costume, with first, second and third awards to be given, along with 40 consolation prizes.

Tentatively, the parade route with start at the city hall and proceed south on State Street to 19th Street, turn west there to Edison Avenue and north to Niedringhaus Avenue and east to the city hall.

In the event of inclement weather, the judging will be completed on the parking lot of the First Granite City National Bank, the lodge committee added.

Another adventure for the ghoulish night would be visiting the castle of Count Dracula Jr. at 1316 Madison Ave., where the Count and Post 104 Productions will present "spooktacular" programs for Halloween '82.

Economy blamed as National Steel losses deepen

National Steel Corp., owner of Granite City Steel, on Friday reported a $40.6 million loss from operations and a $55.4 million write-off of permanently idled properties, for a total net loss of $96 million, $5.14 per share in the third quarter of 1982.

This compares with earnings of $34.6 million, or $1.85 per share, in the third quarter of 1981.

Third quarter revenues were $303 million, down 25 percent from the $1.078 billion reported in the comparable 1981 period.

The write-offs of the quarter, which amounted to $2.96 per share, included equipment at two coal facilities in Pennsylvania and West Virginia, and iron ore property in Minnesota, a merchant pig iron facility and National's share of a related coke plant in New York, and several miscellaneous properties.

The third quarter results included a net gain of $19.8 million, or $1.05 per share, from the liquidation of LIFO (last in, first out) inventories, the early retirement of bonds, and interest on federal income tax refunds.

For the nine months of 1982, net losses totaled $186.1 million, or $9.96 per share, which included $73.6 million, or $3.94 per share, for write-offs of permanently idled facilities.

This compares with net earnings of $69.3 million, or $3.70 per share, in the comparable period of 1981.

Revenues for the nine months of 1982 were $2.439 billion, 25 percent below 1981 revenues of $3.244 billion for the period.

The weakness in the domestic economy, compounded by a world-wide recession, continued to impact all six of National's operating groups in the third quarter, although progress was made in reducing the corporation's break-even point.

The write-offs taken this quarter will reduce the future drain on earnings from these idle and unprofitable facilities, it was noted.

Capital expenditures for the year have been reduced from $230 million to under $140 million.

At the end of the third quarter, the corporation had over $945 million in credit lines available.

Chairman Howard M. Love said.

Madison redistricting faces vote on Tuesday

A public hearing will be conducted tonight at 7 in the Madison City Hall on a proposal which would redistrict the city of Madison from five wards to four and reduce the number of aldermen from 10 to eight. Passage of the new district boundaries (shown in a map on page 24) could come as soon as tomorrow evening's regular Madison City Council meeting.

Two letters from Miss Evelyn Bowles, county clerk, with exact guidelines for the completion date of the project were submitted at a Madison City Council meeting in September by Al Hudzik, city controller. The letters moved up the date by which redistricting must be accomplished.

According to Miss Bowles, "The first day for filing petitions by non-partisan candidates is Dec. 6 and the last day is Dec. 13. As a result, redistricting must be completed not less than 30 days prior to Dec. 6 or by Nov. 5."

In April, 1983, the people will elect four aldermen for a two-year term who will serve with five aldermen elected for two-year terms. In 1985, four aldermen will be elected, thus reducing the number of aldermen to eight. Until final elections are held, there will be two aldermen at large.

The aldermen will vote tonight whether the proposed map and ordinance should be officially drawn up by the city attorney and submitted to the Madison City Council Tuesday at 7:30 p.m., possibly for a final vote, according to Hudzik.

The council understood originally that it had until 90 days before the April, 1983, municipal election to complete redistricting, but Miss Bowles said March would be too late to complete redistricting, since potential candidates need to know the new ward boundaries in time to circulate nominating petitions in the correct ward territories.

A series of meetings have been held since June on the redistricting but progress was slow since it had to be determined how many eligible voters reside on each block before new wards could be designated.

Previously Ward One had 620 voters and will now have 782; Ward Two had 781 now 868; Ward Three 781 and now 802; and Ward Four had 574 voters and will now have 676. Ward Five, which is being eliminated, registered 385 voters for the last election.

Rea vs. Brave in District 25 balloting

Donald C. Rea is the Democratic nominee Nov. 2 for District 25, member of the 23-member Madison County Board. In March, he defeated Board Member Richard Peck and Homer Boothman, a former board member.

Rea is opposed next week by Republican Robert Brave.

The Democratic candidate, 43, a longtime Granite City steel technical services metallurgist, is a veteran trustee of the Village of Pontoon Beach, having been initially elected to that board in 1973. He joined the steel firm in 1969 and has resided in the village for the past 16 years.

Married and the father of three, the native East St. Louisan graduated from East St. Louis High School and studied business administration at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville.

Rea was the charter secretary of the Pontoon Beach Lions Club and has been active in the Granite City Steel Management Club, Little League baseball and Boy Scouts.

He is a past member of United Steelworkers Local 67.

The candidate served in the Marine Corps for three years.

DONALD REA

Formerly a member of the Pontoon Beach Zoning Board of Appeals, he has been an active village board member, serving on all of the committees at various times.

Rea cites his long experience in government as enabling him to serve effectively as a county legislator.

He has been an outspoken critic of some of the policies associated with the county sanitary sewer program here.

Robert L. Brave, 61, of 3027 Mockingbird Lane, a local resident for 31 years, is the Republican candidate for the Madison County Board in District 25, which consists of Nameoki Township Precincts 1, 2, 4, 7, 9, 10 and 12.

He graduated from Edwardsville High School, attended Purdue University's School of Marketing, and completed business courses at Illinois Wesleyan University.

Brave is married to the former Ruth Willardt and has two daughters, Mrs. Christine Melcho of Marshall, Ill., and Mrs. Kathleen Mertz of Memphis, Tenn.

He is a member of St. Peter Evangelical United Church of Christ in Granite City, the Scottish Rite Valley of Southern Illinois, Ainal Temple and the Madison County Farm Bureau.

Brave retired from the insurance business after 23 years.

He comments, "I now have the time to devote to the voters of the district without being controlled by any industry, employer or group."

"I have prepared myself for this position by regularly attending Town Board and County Board meetings."

Brave in his campaigning is emphasizing the following six issues:

1. "Continuing sheriff protection for the unincorporated areas of the county. The people need and deserve police protection and I shall support their need."

"However, I am strictly opposed to a sheriff department tax increase of 46-cents per $100, or $50 to $96 per home, in the unincorporated areas to provide this protection."

2. "With proper management and control of waste and spending, this tax is not necessary."

3. "High cost of sanitary sewers. Homeowners should not be financially burdened because of the excess spending of those in control. These costs must be reduced to a minimum."

4. "Drainage and environmental problems. We need action — not just talk and promises — to correct drainage problems in this district."

5. "Environmental laws should be enforced to clean up trash, abandoned buildings, etc. Let's improve our over-all appearance."

6. "County jobs for the people of our district. I do not mean creating patronage jobs. I do not mean jobs for county government of greater benefit to all."

"When a job opening occurs, residents here should have an opportunity to be employed."

5. "Fire districts. We are very fortunate to have several excellent fire departments in District 25, thanks to the untiring efforts of the volunteer firemen."

Their devotion should be recognized and will always be considered in issues which may surface in this area."

6. "Nursing homes. I am opposed to the special tax for the Madison County Nursing Home. The county should not compete with the free-enterprise system at taxpayers' expense."

"The needy are being taken care of by the state in private nursing homes."

Brave is opposing Democrat Donald Rea in the general election. The incumbent, Richard Peck, lost in the Democratic primary.

IGNORE YOUR BACKACHE & SUFFER THE CONSEQUENCES.

Back pain, however insignificant it seems, is frequently the beginning of serious, painful problems. Problems such as pinched nerves, slipped disc, neuralgia, neuritis, (and sometimes arthritic type pains), tuberculosis and even paralysis.

The spine is a complex system of nerves, muscles, bones, ligaments & cartilage which are interconnected to control specific areas of the body. When the bones, or VERTEBRAE are misaligned, they pinch the surrounding nerves, obstructing the flow of energy to other parts of the body. This often results in complications which can be severe & permanent.

Dr. Gudgel is experienced in treating patients with back pain. He can restore spinal vertebrae to their proper position, relieving pain and avoiding further serious complications.

Some still ignore tax

As many as three major companies and a list of smaller retailers are not submitting the amount of sales tax required by the Granite City's additional 34 percent sales tax, city officials are alleging.

A list of suspected violators of the sales tax ordinance has been submitted to the city attorney and to Alan Richardson, director of the Tri-Cities Area Chamber of Commerce.

City Comptroller Joseph Miklovic told members of the finance committee Tuesday that the tax has never approached the $100,000 monthly revenue originally expected. The comptroller estimates monthly income from the tax is about $80,000.

The list of suspected violators has been with the city attorney for some time, said the comptroller, and contains some firms that have submitted no sales tax to the city. The comptroller said this type of passive resistance to the sales tax appears to have replaced the formerly aggressive resistance taken by some merchants.

Alderman Warren Decatur, Fourth Ward, said the suspected violators seem to be waiting for the city to make the first legal move in the standoff situation. "And, if we do, we risk losing the whole thing," he said.

According to the alderman, the portion of the city ordinance which requires Air Products and Chemicals, Inc., to charge a retail tax per cubic foot of gas is "absolutely asinine." He suggested the ordinance be changed in such instances. Sixth Ward Alderman Walter Milton, finance chairman, said the city might have to work out some sort of a solution with some of the big retailers if the wording of the ordinance is unfair to them.

Some straight talk on GC Steel

Who is Edward Sambuchi and why are they saying all these awful-wonderful things about him?

Sambuchi (pronounced Sam-boo-ki) is the new vice president/general manager of Granite City Steel and has a tough job ahead of him. From what we have seen, thus far, he looks like the man for the job.

Sambuchi is a realist. He recognizes the critical stage the steel industry is in and is willing to come out and say things that the rest of us have avoided saying. Sambuchi states that the steel industry may never again see the volumes of orders for steel that it did in the past. There is little hope the "B" blast furnace will go back on line in 1982.

However, he believes things can turn around. "The turn-around must start in the MINDS of the people. People have to be convinced that profits CAN be made at lower levels. They have to convince themselves and be confident that the equipment and people we have can produce efficiently," he says.

Only by reducing fixed and variable costs and making maximum use of the people and equipment Granite City Steel now has can a profit be made, he believes. "In the short term, there are no major capital improvements, there are no major configuration changes that can be made to offset existing market conditions," he notes.

Flexibility and creativity are stressed in his plans for further cutting costs. "People have to change their traditional viewpoint," he says. "When you do decrease the size of your forces, people have to take on additional duties and responsibilities. Proper utilization of these people is necessary, and I want to emphasize PROPER utilization."

The rebuilding of the "CC" coke oven battery shows the confidence National Steel Corp. has in Granite City Steel, he says. "They would not be investing money of this magnitude if they did not feel we are a viable, long-term producing part of the corporation," he adds.

Sambuchi has 10 guidelines for employees to follow. Remember, you are not self-employed. Communication is important. Everyone has something to contribute. Allow people to do their jobs. Get your money's worth. Treat every assignment as an opportunity, not as a punishment. No project will succeed without a plan. Don't be afraid to be creative. Remember, you have a boss. Enjoy what you are doing.

If things are to turn around, it will take men like Edward Sambuchi. He deserves the respect and cooperation of everyone in the Quad-City area.

Stevenson campaign is bombing

Adlai Stevenson has become about as desperate as a quarterback a touchdown behind in the last two minutes. He is throwing the political football around with wild abandon and, as is usually the case, providing the opposition with plenty of opportunities for interceptions.

Even some of his old friends in politics and the press are beginning to wonder if Stevenson can do anything to win. He is facing a test of his statesmanship and seems to be failing it.

For the first time in a political career that spans 18 years and four successful and predominantly easy campaigns, he is having to face the prospect of defeat. His reaction has not been of a character that admires of two generations of Stevensons in politics would have expected.

Stevenson has publicly acknowledged that his campaign to date has been a failure. He attributes this not to a long series of campaign fumbles that have been so obvious to everyone, but to a failure of Illinois voters to respond to what he claims has been a statesmanlike approach.

Now, Stevenson declares, he will intensify the final aggressive phase of the campaign, hoping to recover lost points in the polls by more fiercely attacking the Thompson administration and apparently Thompson personally as well.

As he did briefly at the outset of the campaign, Stevenson is attempting to make the present campaign a rerun of that of 1968 when his father came on to beat Republican Gov. Dwight Green, trying for a third term. This strategy proved a dud earlier and some political strategists believe it will again, for this is not 1968 and Jim Thompson is not Dwight Green.

efforts where drugs and organized crime are concerned.

Mr. Reagan will need congressional support in the way of a $200 million appropriation for staffing the drug task forces with new personnel. The effort will not have to make much of a dent in the illicit drug racket to justify this expense.

Our society pays and pays again for drug abuse and narcotic addiction — only beginning with the estimated $80 billion siphoned from the productive economy by the underworld. Add to that the losses from crimes committed by addicts to support their habits, and the welfare costs for families shattered by drug problems.

We can well afford to spend a little more to go after the smugglers and wholesalers who make it all possible.

Diamond Shamrock Corp., Union Carbide Corp. and the Dow Chemical Co. will be reviewing the efficiency of EPA is at the very-least suspect.

The advisory panel also is hedging on handing over a list of its task force members to the General Accounting Office, the investigative arm of Congress. The panel apparently doesn't think it's any of the public's business at this point. Some congressional critics, though, fear that the panel might try to swing its weight by influencing agency policy decisions.

Two dangers come to mind. One is that bureaucrats will muster enough clout to beat back serious cost controls — which if done properly and effectively could have vast value to the taxpayers and to hopes for sensible government.

The other is self-evident: Suggestions made by corporate foxes could create problems for those entrusted with the henhouse.

At either extreme, the whole enterprise could suffer the fate of coring out ridiculous.

New war on drugs a good sign

We are pleased to hear President Reagan announce a new, concerted federal effort to attack the drug traffic. Its success could lead to a significant reduction in local crime and, equally important, a reduction in the human misery of addiction on which the drug trafficker thrives.

The president's plan calls for a group of federal "task forces," which will see federal investigators and prosecutors mounting a comprehensive strategy against major drug dealers within their assigned regions.

This is in line with a reorganization last year that saw the Drug Enforcement Administration incorporated in the Federal Bureau of Investigation. It is apparent Attorney General William French Smith has detected a fragmentation of federal enforcement

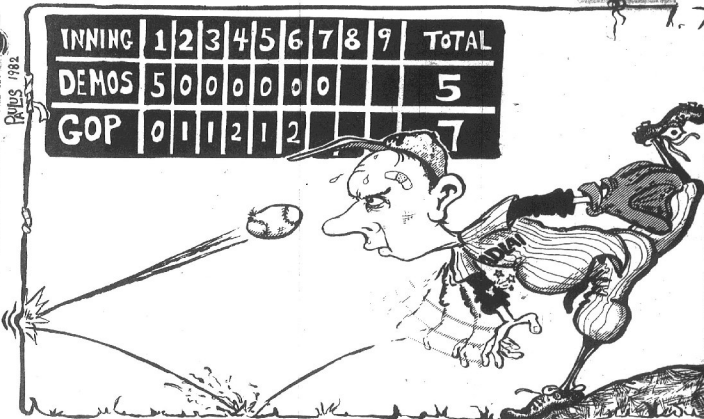

We wonder who's watching whom

These guys from the president's Private Sector Survey on Cost Control are in the news again. A few days ago, it came to light that they were rummaging about for "horrifying and ridiculous events" with which to embarrass the federal government. Talk about setting up a patsy.

That ruffled some bureaucratic feathers and now there's serious counterintelligence going on. Just who are these businessmen and what are they really up to is the refrain waiting from government offices.

Is the "waste" and "inefficiency" they seek to root out necessarily in the interest of the nation? Could one man's "waste" be another man's protection against pollution?

Recent disclosures have shown that many of the executives have been assigned to examine government agencies that regulate their own corporations. All 68 of the commission members studying the Environmental Protection Agency, for example, are from industries that have been targets of EPA enforcement. That

How do Quad-City Area residents think the two candidates in the state gubernatorial race — Gov. James Thompson and Adlai Stevenson — are faring as the Nov. 2 election draws near? Members of the Press-Record editorial staff surveyed persons for their reactions.

Jim Campbell, Granite City

"I think it's about 60 percent for one and 40 percent for the other. I think Thompson's got the edge. I think it will be close, according to the kinds of issues that might come up at the end. The farm deal, if it comes through, might get Thompson a few votes. (President) Reagan has been campaigning for it through the Midwest."

Deborah Frazier, Granite City

"I don't like Thompson. I'd have to say the other guy. I own this shop (Debbie Resale Shop), and our business is doing good because the economy is down. So, they (residents) try to get whatever they can here."

Thomas Best, Granite City

"I think Thompson is ahead by a comfortable margin. I think he'll win. I'm sure he'll win. I think Thompson has been a good governor. I don't know how he stands on gun control, but I know Adlai stands for gun confiscation."

Margie Lewis, Granite City

"The way it seems — Thompson's going to get elected again. I think he's got a good chance at keeping his office. He seems to be doing a pretty good job at running things."

A few thoughts on the country's problems

To the Editor:

What will our country be (if we have one) by the year 1990?

Can we say we are a free country?

Are we dependent on and subservient to other countries?

Can the words of a single person or a few persons change the economic course of this country?

Will the "monied" few of this country make the laws for the rest of us?

Is the sacrifice too great to regain make this country the fine, upstanding, powerful country it used to be?

Do you feel the country owes everything to you or have you realized that unless you give of your best, this country won't have anything to give?

What this country is in 1990 depends on each individual. No one single person or a few groups of people can make it in the country we visualize it to be.

We must each do our share in making sure this country remains free. Groups all over this country are sitting back waiting for us to ruin ourselves. They encourage us to come along and see they can deliver the knockout blow. When these young men refuse to register, they smile, again knowing their seed of discontent is growing steadily. Will we be free?

consider that with much concern.

Why is it that such a great country, with so much brain power, cannot (or will not) solve our energy problem?

When oil was "cheap" oil companies said "could not afford to drill for oil and gas, and now that it is five to six times the earlier price, there doesn't seem too much more effort being made to keep the price high?"

Our greatest energy commodity, coal, is lying in the ground just waiting for us to mine. Why don't we burn it? "Because of air pollution." With all the great brain power we have in this country, no one can tell me we shouldn't already have a means of burning this coal with little or no pollution. (Someone does want this alternative energy source to come along and see it is a pity that the word of a "so-called economist" can make a statement and can send the stock market into a "nose dive" or "soaring sky-high."

In listening to these "so-called economists" one may make a statement, if he feels good that day, it is "optimistic" or, if another got up on the wrong side of the bed and is feeling bad, he makes a "pessimistic" prediction.

Personally, I feel neither know any more about the economy than you or I. Remember, it is all theory anyway, and they sure don't know how you and I, "the public," are going to react on any given situation. What they really are trying to do is make decisions for you because you won't take time to develop your own ideas — you let someone else think for you.

One of the biggest factors which concerns me is how we let our representatives in government "not represent" us, but only those who provide the greatest source to come along and see support" for their re-election. How long are we going to be hoodwinked by these tactics? Isn't it about time we let them know that it is our votes that put them in office and they had better start representing us, "the little people," instead of the "money and pressure" groups? Our votes outnumber them by such an enormous figure — "if we register and vote."

And don't say your vote doesn't count. That is exactly what they want you to think. If you recall, however, recently in a couple of elections in Madison County, each opponent had the same number of votes. In each case your one vote could have made the difference. And it could happen in state and federal elections.

National salute to Vietnam veterans slated

To the Editor:

After three long years of tremendous effort and the overwhelming support of the American people, the Vietnam Veteran Memorial is now a few months away from becoming a reality. At last the men and women who answered their country's call to duty in Vietnam will be recognized and thanked for their service and sacrifice.

In recognition of this timely and well-deserved tribute, and in an effort to further enhance the mission of the memorial project, the Vietnam Veterans Memorial Fund is sponsoring a National Salute to Vietnam Veterans. This series of special events will take place Nov. 10 to 14, in Washington, D.C., and will include a candlelight vigil, a parade in tribute to Vietnam veterans, military unit reunions, entertainment, and more.

One of the biggest factors which concerns me is how we let our representatives in VVMF (Vietnam Veterans Memorial Fund) is encouraging all Americans to join in this national salute.

Further information is available from Sandie Fauriol, director, National Salute to Vietnam Veterans at 1-202-650-2400.

Drivers should observe handicapped parking areas locally

To the Editor:

I am writing about all of the people who are not handicapped and insist on parking their cars in the handicapped parking places. I see this done nearly every time I go shopping.

Is there a fine for people who do this? If not, I think it time we see something done about this problem.

I, myself, am not handicapped and never park in these designated areas. I feel other shoppers should show the same respect to the handicapped.

If you're against the Government withholding interest on your savings, read on . . . and then act now!

Do you want 10% of the interest you earn on savings withheld for taxes? On August 19, 1982, Congress passed the Tax Equity and Fiscal Responsibility Act of 1982. One of the many provisions of that act requires the 10% withholding on interest and dividends effective July 1, 1983.

It means you won't have the full and immediate use of the interest you earn. Therefore, if you depend on interest and dividend income, you'll find it harder to make ends meet.

If the eighty million savers in this country take the time to fill out the coupon below, Washington will know that the taxpayers want the act amended to exclude the withholding provision.

Demonstrations were given in racquetball, healthy back, V's Way to Fitness, aquatics, Fitness Fantasy and Fun N' Fitness.

Various tournaments also are conducted by the YMCA. With so much going on yesterday, Fermitte had only a few minutes to catch his breath and pause to talk. He posed with Fredbird, he explained the available programs and, throughout all, he smiled as he showed off the YMCA's fitness.

YMCA shows its pride during the open house

By NANCY WEIL

of the Press-Record

Members of the YMCA staff were like a bunch of small children yesterday, excited about the Great Christmas finery at the open house which attracted 300 people throughout the afternoon.

Although Fredbird, the St. Louis Cardinals mascot, was admittedly the main attraction for the first half of the open house, after he left, those in attendance were left to look at the glittering finery of the building, which has been painted from top to bottom and cleaned to a shine.

Demonstrations of the six basic classes offered at the YMCA were given by instructors in between tours and various displays. The Ainaid Shriners' Krazy Klowns gave away 800 balloons after members turned them into twisted, colored animals.

Three clowns charmed adults and children alike during the four-hour open house. "Leftovers," one of the Krazy Klowns, walked from the basement to the first floor, talking to children and displaying the fine art of twisting balloons into various designs.

As throughout the day, David Fermitte, executive director of the YMCA, quietly observed with a huge smile on his face. He seemed to be scarcely able to contain his pride in the YMCA, which has gotten a facelift of sorts since January.

"We started in earnest last spring (sprucing up the YMCA). It was at that point that we decided to hold an open house," he said.

Several "major things" were done starting last spring. The entire gymnasium was painted, a new pool filter was added.

Many of the improvements "needed to be done for a long time," Fermitte said. In August, the YMCA closed for a week and special attention was given to the pool, which was drained, painted and plugged.

At the YMCA was quite a boost for the work, which is in a unique situation. With health clubs and racquetball clubs springing up throughout the area, the YMCA has been faced with competition — something it did not really have a few years ago.

"The economy is not helping at all," Fermitte said. Others in the health business also have experienced membership problems with people going to the discretionary dollar, he added. "People are more choosy about where they spend their money. There's no question in terms of being competitive," he said.

Even with competition, Fermitte is confident of the YMCA's ability to please its members. "We have a big advantage," he said.

That advantage is that the YMCA has a gymnasium, swimming pool, racquetball courts, weight training and certified instructors to teach a variety of classes. There also are various programs offered at the YMCA that cannot be found at other clubs, he said.

Five new staff members have been hired recently to teach classes and run the YMCA.

All the additions and improvements, Fermitte said, "We're making a concerted effort to broaden our programs." This effort includes expanding youth programs. A youth membership is offered, as are youth-oriented activities.

Presently, the YMCA is expanding outside of the building and going into junior high and elementary schools in the area. One example cited by Fermitte was fitness programs. "Heart disease is the number one killer and it really begins in childhood. If we learn to be inactive, and to overeat," he said. By emphasizing fitness for youths, Fermitte said younger members of the community will "learn to incorporate fitness into their lives."

Children also will be taught nutrition and weight control, he said.

The success of the new program was indicated in the membership drive which netted about 25 new members who took advantage of a special price offered during the open house. Prizes, including memberships, were given away each hour.

For the preparation for the open house, actually took about two months, according to Mrs. Christine Each, front desk supervisors and tour guide. About 15 people toured the building each hour, and watched demonstrations of various classes. Others, who did not take the tours, mingled in to watch demonstrations and ask questions.

Steelers shut out Cahokia; eye Tigers, Crusaders

By ROGER KRAMER
of the Press-Record
GRANITE CITY — Tom Wyrostek probably wouldn't mind if Granite City North won the Gateway East Conference football title, but it's not the most important thing he's thinking about now.

After the Steelers defeated Cahokia 27-0 Saturday in a crucial GEC game for the Steelers, Wyrostek is more worried about the Steelers keeping up their steady improvement in the final two games with Belleville Althoff and Edwardsville.

Althoff, 4-0 in the GEC and 5-2 overall, will win the conference championship and playoff berth if the Crusaders beat North Friday at Granite City. North, 3-1 and 4-3 can take the GEC title with a victory over Althoff.

"We have a lot of other things to think about ahead of thinking about the conference. We want to put together a successful, respectable team together in the final two games and improve on what we got," Wyrostek said.

The Steelers have come a long way since the season began. The reason:

North's defense.

On Saturday, North forced eight Cahokia turnovers. The Steelers converted four of those into 24 points.

"They beat the hell out of us at the line," Cahokia coach Lawrence Taylor said. "They beat us at the line and they beat us up. They're only a little bigger than we are, but they just wanted it more than we did."

The only North score which didn't come off a turnover was Daren DePew's 25-yard field goal with 2:22 left in the first quarter. From then on, Cahokia gave North every opportunity it could to score.

On a third down play at the Comanches' 28, James Moed made a diving interception of Cahokia quarterback Dave Mardirosian's pass. Three plays later, DePew broke down the right side 23 yards for a touchdown to open the second quarter.

On Cahokia's next possession, the Comanches managed to get a first down, but that was stopped when Bob Quick and Bill Zimmer sacked Mardirosian and almost made him fumble the ball to the Steelers inside his own 20-yard line.

To add insult to injury, the Comanches fumbled the snap to the punter. By the time Cahokia got to the area of the ball, Moed already covered the ball for a North touch.

North wasn't to score again until the fourth quarter. DePew recovered a fumble late in the third quarter at Cahokia's 12-yard line. Four plays later, Al Pregel pushed through the line for a one-yard touchdown run.

Rod Heesler intercepted another pass later in the fourth quarter at the Cahokia 29 and moved it to the 13. North

"We have a lot of other things to think about before we think about (winning) the conference. We want to put together a successful respectable team in the final two games."

Tom Wyrostek
Steeler football coach

only moved the ball three yards on the next three plays, so DePew kicked a 27-yard field goal with 4:28 to go.

"I've thought we've been a pretty decent defensive team all year long," Wyrostek said. "You've got to do what you do best."

Defense is obviously the thing North does best.

The Steelers held Cahokia to only 84 yards rushing and 23 yards passing, mostly because of the turnovers.

Meanwhile, North rushed for 139 yards, including 70 by Pregel, and gained 41 yards in the air.

"We had a lot of first-and-10 situation which we didn't capitalize on, and we have a lot of work to do on that. We've got more than a little bit to improve on there. However, we did take advantage of the breaks the defense gave us," Wyrostek said.

"We played an aggressive ball game. The kids have been trying to improve. I was encouraged by the way we took advantage of their mistakes," Wyrostek added.

On the other hand, the 1982 season has been frustrating to Taylor. Cahokia's only victory came against Granite City South.

"They played a good ball game last week, but this week we came out flat. I don't know if we're capable of winning because we haven't had a good season in so long," Taylor said.

Taylor is encouraged by the younger kids in the Comanches' program, but he expects drastic changes if the program doesn't come along the way he wants it to.

"If we don't turn it around next year, I'll probably leave this job. It's got to be my fault if we can't come up with a winning attitude at this school," Taylor said.

"The way we've been playing, Granite South will probably end their losing streak with us. I'm going to use some of my younger kids and give them some experience," Taylor said.

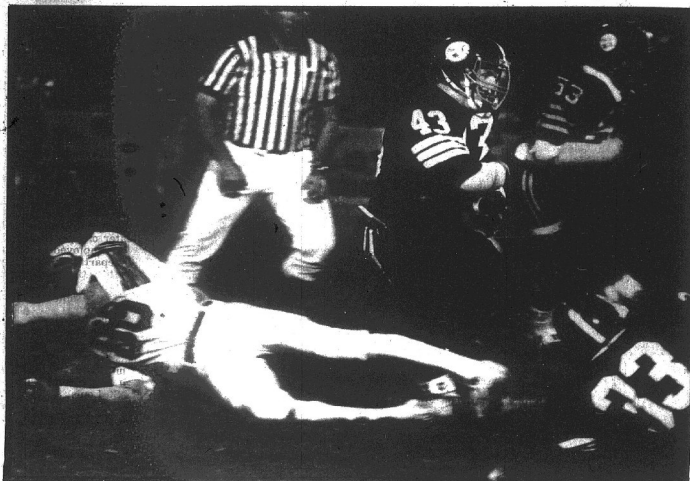

Cahokia hosts the Warriors Friday as South tries to break its 25-game losing streak.

On the other hand, North is nearing the top of its game now.

"You can't have everything. We have put together a good effort that won this game," Wyrostek said.

Hannibal hands Warriors 53-0 homecoming loss

By ALAN L. GERSTENECKER
Sports Editor
of the Press-Record

GRANITE CITY — If every cloud has a silver lining, then the silver lining around the cloud of Granite City South's 53-0 homecoming loss to Hannibal Friday night is starting quarterback John Linhart is not out for the season.

Linhart was sidelined in Friday's football contest with what was originally diagnosed as broken ribs. Further analysis and X-rays revealed Saturday that Linhart's ribs were only bruised. Chances of him returning for South's two final contests improves immensely with the second diagnosis.

"I've never believed that one kid can make a ball team, but our chances of winning one this year look a whole lot worse without Linhart," McKeehan said Friday night. "Henry Brown did a fine job for us tonight, but he just hasn't had the varsity experience."

Actually, Linhart's injury occurred three weeks ago when he was tackled in a similar situation. Friday's injury, McKeehan feared, aggravated the injury to a point where he could not perform.

Even before Linhart's injury Friday, things didn't look good for the Warriors. On Hannibal's first possession of the game, the Pirates marched 85 yards in 11 plays for a touchdown. All but one of those downs were running plays coming from either Steve Ehrhardt or Steve Oitker.

Offensively, the Pirates managed 591 yards on offense. That, by the way, was a new record for that school. It broke the old record of 554 yards against Kirkville High School in 1979.

Most of Hannibal's yardage was gained on the ground by either Oitker and Ehrhardt. Oitker dashed for 186 yards, while Ehrhardt managed 132. Scott Rampey, Hannibal's quarterback, in addition to throwing for 147 yards, rushed for 32 yards.

Prior to Friday's contest, Hannibal's coach, John Bringer, said his team would test the Warrior secondary with a deluge of passes. Friday, of Hannibal's 63 offensive plays, only 14 of those were passes. The Warriors attempted 19 passes.

"It was plain and simple," Bringer said. "We thought we'd need to go to the air against these guys. We soon discovered we didn't. Our ground game opened up, so why risk it," Bringer said.

Things did not come as easy for the Warriors on the ground. Scott rushed for a lean 42 yards, while managing an even 100 yards in the air. Linhart was five of seven for 63 yards, while Brown was three for 12 for 37 yards.

Comparative speaking, Hannibal dominated. They dominated everywhere.

"The difference in the game was right at the line of scrimmage," McKeehan said. "They blew us off the line. They were a lot quicker off the ball," McKeehan said.

"I feel bad for the kids," he said. "We had a good week in practice. They thought we had a chance at this one...so did I," McKeehan said.

Oddly enough, Bringer thought the same thing.

"We had scouted South pretty extensively," Bringer said. "We knew left side for the score. Linville's PAT adjusted the score to 34-0.

Then, just six plays from scrimmage later following another Warrior intercepted pass, lightning struck again as Rampey scored on a quarterback keeper from just one yard out.

Hannibal made it 47-0 with the PAT following John Nemes' touchdown run from the four yard line.

The Pirates' final score followed Darren Foster's intercepted pass at South's own 19 yard line. Rampey reciprocated the honors to Foster by tossing him a TD pass for that final score. The PAT failed.

The victory adjusts Hannibal's record to 5-3 on the season. South is 0-7.

"To be honest, coming in here I didn't think we were going to win."

about Linhart from last year, but we also heard they've had some hard luck and they're not as bad as their record indicates," Bringer said.

"To be honest, coming in here I didn't think we were going to win," Bringer said. "We barely beat them last year and I heard they were stronger this year."

Last year, Hannibal defeated South 26-15, but the Warriors led for most of the game.

Hannibal's second touchdown came with just 32 seconds remaining in the game as Ehrhardt scored from two yards out. The touchdown capped an eight-play 70-yard drive.

The Pirates scored again in the waning minutes of the first half as Rampey tossed a 10-yard completion to Phil Linville. The PAT was good to give Hannibal a 21-0 halftime lead.

Hannibal's fourth touchdown was set up an intercepted Brown pass in the opening play of the second half. Hannibal's Andy Long intercepted the first of five Brown passes of the evening.

Rampey's pass to McIntyre from 14 yards out boosted Hannibal's tally to 27. The PAT attempt was blocked, however.

Following a Don Hammond punt, Hannibal took possession to set up its fifth score of the evening.

In seven plays, Hannibal marched to within South's 13 yard line. Then on first down Ehrhardt dashed around the

Cougars, Bills prepare for Bronze Boot

The soccer "Game of the Year," the annual blood-letting between the Cougars of Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville and the Bills of St. Louis University, will be played this Friday night (Oct. 29) at St. Louis' Busch Memorial Stadium. The kickoff will be at 7:30 p.m.

Fans may save themselves a dollar by purchasing their tickets ahead at the Student Center at SIUE for $2. At the stadium the night of the game it'll be $4 per person.

The odds-makers have the Cougar kickers of Coach Bob Gueller favored to win their first Bronze Boot Classic game in two years; SIUE fell to the Bills, 2-1, last year before an estimated 14,000, and 4-1 in the 1980 encounter.

OUT OF BOUNDS? Granite City South's John Konkovich tries to push Hannibal running back Steve Oitker out of bounds during the Warriors homecoming game Friday.

However, Oitker kept his footing and scampered down the sideline before Tom Adamiis (15) brought him down at the four yard line. Hannibal defeated South to spoil their homecoming.

Warrior kickers retain status in polls

The Granite City High School soccer team is still at the top of both the writers' and the coaches' poll in the "Chicago Sting High School Newsletter." South was voted 90 points in the writers' poll and 135 points in the coaches' poll.

Collinsville is the fourth in both the writers' and the coaches' polls. Alton-Marquette is ranked seventh in the writers' poll and 13th in the coaches' poll.

After an absence of two weeks, the Granite City North soccer team was given an honorable mention in the writers' poll.

Alton Sr. was the only other team mentioned in the ranking. The Redbirds were given an honorable mention in both polls.

Finally, the Alton-Marquette Explorers were voted the Chicago Sting team of the week.

GRANITE CITY — Lora Wiser and Jim Robertson both led their schools to easy victories in Friday's Gateway East Conference cross country meet held at Granite City North's course.

South's Wiser and North's Robertson both assumed early leads in their respective races and then held them.

Wiser finished the 2.25 mile girls' course with a time of 13:13 and Robertson finished the boys' 3-mile course with a time of 15:38.

Even though both of them won, neither was thrilled with their performances or their times.

"I'll do better when I'm pushed," Robertson said, because he feels he runs better when the level of competition is higher.

Wiser said, "I ran well, but I can do better."

North's boys tallied 27 points to beat second-place Cahokia, who scored 40. Edwardsville was third with 70 points and South finished with 102. Belleville Althoff doesn't have a cross country team.

South's girls scored 33 points to beat Edwardsville, who took second place with 43 points. North took third place with 52 points and Cahokia finished fourth with 87.

North's Kenny Meyer finished fourth with a time of 16:08. Teammates Bill Schaefer finished sixth at 16:21, followed by seventh place finisher John Peters at 16:23 and ninth place went to Ken Kalka at 16:35.

South's Michelle Shoemaker finished fourth at 13:48, followed by teammate Angela Grabowski finished fifth at 14:47.

North's Paula Roszycki took sixth place after edging South's Connie Williamson at the finish line. Both runners ended the race with times of 14:48.

The Warrior's Tashia Szymeczek was their fifth finisher in sixteenth place with a time of 15:03.

The Warriors won even though they were without two of their best runners, Mary Romine and Mary Bisch.

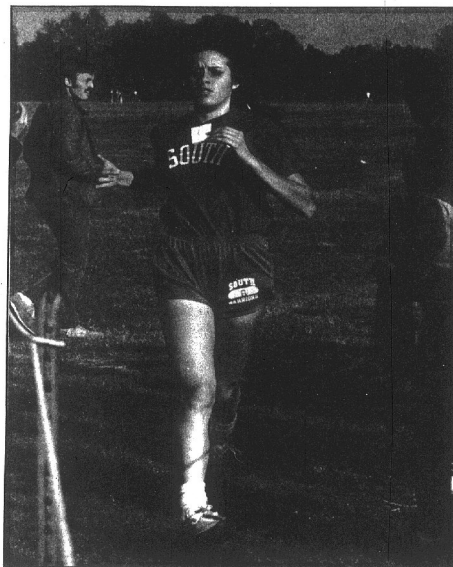

According to North's coach Pete Robinson the weather was perfect for cross country. "There's no wind and no heat."

Coolidge defeats Grigsby; wins county grid title

By AL BARNES
For the Press-Record

It was almost a perfect gridiron battle and, except for a missed pass by the levers just seconds before the intermission, the outcome could have been closer than the final score.

It was the annual junior high football shootout between two bitter but friendly rivals, Coolidge and Grigsby junior high schools played at Granite City South's field Wednesday night.

Virgil Kambarian and his Coolidge Braves won the hard-played confrontation, 20-6, with the use of a seldom-seen play ... a dramatic quick kick that turned the game around.

Coach John Sikora's Grigsby Gators, who had won their last two annual battles with Coolidge, played most of the game without the services of their ace running back and top defender, Mike Williams. Early on in the game Williams twisted his right knee and his coach promptly set him on the bench. Young Williams begged to return to the lineup but he was refused. Said Sikora: "A knee injury can hamper a player all his life and I simply didn't want that."

The Coolidge record, with its victory over Grigsby, gave the Braves their conference championship and a perfect 5-0 mark for the campaign just completed. It ran the Braves all-time record to 139 victories, 25 losses and four ties.

It was a big win for Kambarian and his Braves. He had played on the Coolidge eleven back in 1961 under the coaching of Frank Krause in another undefeated season with nine victories and no losses.

Dave Bamber, Coolidge's hard-running back, scored two touchdowns for the Braves and racked up 110 yards on 10 carries and one two-point conversion.

His two main offensive teammates,

Todd Adamits and Todd Hinterser, alternating at quarterback, were almost as effective as Bamber.

Adamits romped for 60 yards on eight tries and one touchdown, the Braves' final one on a three year plunge. Hinterser racked up 55 yards on six carries.

Bamber's first TD came on a 25 yard run around right end. Adamits kick for the extra point was wide to the left.

Coolidge's quick kick by Hinterser rescued the Braves from a sticky situation just minutes before the second quarter ended. The booming, 55-yard kick, on a third down situation, appeared to catch the Gators completely off guard.

"We put the kick play in our book just for this game," explained Kambarian. "I learned it from Coach Krause and John Tonceff. And, I can't understand why more teams ... now ... don't use it."

Tim Hogan, whose six passes were a constant threat against Coolidge, scored Grigsby's touchdown on a neat "keeper" from about three yards out which capped a 40-yard drive by the Gators.

Tim had two passes to his twin, Jamie, go off his receiver's fingertips ... both of which may well have changed the game around.

With just 16 seconds left in the game, and deep in Grigsby territory, young Hogan was obviously trying for "the bomb," but the Coolidge pass rush made him hurry his toes and Lee Schreier intercepted it as the clock ran out.

It was a typically hard-fought game which has become the custom when Coolidge and Grigsby meet on the gridiron. The line play on both sides was crisp and hard ... and never a hint of dirty play. The tackling was hard but never nasty. All in all, it was a fine football game.

Many of the young griders who played Wednesday at Granite City South's field will, I predict, go on to play some outstanding football in high school and, many I'm sure, will go on to earn letters on college squads.

During the season, the Coolidge Braves posted a 12-0 victory over Bethalto, won over Prather, 19-6, shutout Edwardsville, 13-0, and demolished Rosana, 21-0, and finished with the 20-6 triumph over Grigsby.

Warrior kickers defeat Althoff 4-0

BELLEVILLE — Granite City South's soccer team ended the regular season perfectly Friday afternoon. The Warriors defeated Belleville Althoff 4-0 in the Gateway East Conference final for 1982 and won the GEC title with a 8-0 record.

Not only did South have a perfect season in the win column, the Warriors played perfect defense in the GEC. No Gateway East team — including second place Granite City North — scored a goal against the Warriors this season.

"That's something the team and I were very happy about," South coach Gene Baker said. "The Gateway East is a good soccer conference, and it's difficult to shut everyone in the conference."

"The record is something which may be matched in the future, but the record won't certainly be outdone. It's nice to set a record like that," he added.

South used its season finale to give everyone a chance to play. Baker started Tim Veizer in goal to give regular goalkeeper Jeb Blasingame a rest.

Bill Hency scored the Warriors' first goal four minutes into the game. South put the Crusaders away in the second quarter. Barry Grote scored on a pass from Jim Gibson with 18:33 to go in that quarter.

Ed Cowley scored his first goal of the season when he fired the ball from 30 yards out after gaining control of the ball.

"He really hit the ball hard," Baker said. "It was a dandy shot, a very pretty shot."

Hency closed the scoring with a goal with 8:30 left in the quarter. Nathan Crane picked up the assist on the goal.

From that point on, South used its reserves extensively.

"We dominated the game pretty clearly. The big thing about this game was that some of our JV players got some varsity experience, and I was happy with the way Veizer played. He's done a good job for us on both the varsity and JV teams. We have a lot of confidence in him, especially with the playoffs this week," Baker said.

Veizer made saves on all four of Althoff's shots in the game. By contrast, South took 29 shots on goal.

With the regular season behind them, the Warriors are looking forward to the playoffs. South, the top seed in its regional, will play either Madison or East St. Louis Assumption Thursday at 7 p.m. at the Gauley.

"This is a very important time for us. In the lapse between the games, we will get the chance to work on some things and rejuvenate ourselves for the playoffs," Baker said.

Phil Harizal, a senior striker for the Warriors, has a pulled groin, and Baker hopes the break will give him and some of the other players to get over various injuries.

South finished the regular season with a 22-3-0 record overall. "It has been a very successful season for us so far. We have to be careful not to overlook anyone because that would end the season sooner than we want it to end," Baker said.

North falls to Hazelwood East 2-1

FLORISSANT — After annihilating Belleville Althoff 10-1 and Belleville East 5-0, the Granite North soccer team went into its final game of the season against Hazelwood East with too much complacency and lost 2-1.

Usually, statistics indicate how the game went, but Friday, the Steelers led in shots on goal which is usually one of the most telling tools. But the foot told more about the Steelers' game. With only seven fouls to Hazelwood's 10, North simply was not attacking the ball or playing an aggressive game.

"We played the first 34 minutes without a foul. That means we were not going after the soccer ball," Bob Kehoe, North coach said.

Hazelwood took advantage of North's lack of attack and scored first with 15 minutes left in the first half. Jim Schwab scored off a corner kick after North's defense failed to head the ball away. Schwab scored the ball and clipped it into the far corner from five yards out.

With eight minutes left in the first, North came back when Tim Dean scored off a throw in near the goal area from about six yards out.

But three minutes later, Hazelwood jumped on top when Bill Becher scored with an assist from Schwab off another corner kick. Becher got underneath the ball and headed it over the crossbar by several feet, but the ball dropped into the goal. In Kehoe's words, it was "unbelievable."

What was even more unbelievable was North's attitude. "I think they must have been reading the press clippings after the last two (Belleville) games. They said, 'we're good because the newspaper says we're good, so we can just stand around.'"

The attitude was so relaxed that Kehoe could detect an imminent problem before the game started. "I could tell on the way to the game in the bus. The attitude was not right. The conversation was not right. There was too much of a relaxed atmosphere. Too subdued. I can feel it everytime they're like that."

What seemed to bother Kehoe most was that North could have beaten Hazelwood East and indeed, should have won the game.

"I expected a lot more of Hazelwood East considering that South had to go into overtime (against them). To be perfectly honest, we are a better team than Hazelwood East. We gave them two goals," he said.

The attitude must change before Thursday when North plays Cahokia at 3:30 p.m. in the first round of regionals. With regular season play complete, the Steelers have a 10-1 record. Two of those wins, however, were against Cahokia.

"But the last time we played them it took a helluva an effort to beat them." Kehoe said of the 1-0 win.

Assuming the Steelers will beat Cahokia, their next game will be Saturday at 2 p.m. against South. North has been shut out by the Warriors, 3-0 and 4-0, but Kehoe seems optimistic about the game. "We have to assume we're the underdogs."

"Anything is possible. Desire and determination can work miracles. I could see us coming out of here (the sectional)."

Nesbit wins Grind 10,000 meters

It was a cold fall morning last Saturday, Oct. 23, but despite the weather, 73 persons braved the chilly air to participate in the fourth annual YMCA-Granite City Jaycee "Greater Granite Grind" Fun Run.

The races were run in conjunction with the Tri-City YMCA open house. To accommodate different skill levels, there were two races. The first, a two-mile run, was for those runners which the second race might have been too much for. The second race, was 10,000 meters. Most chose to run the second race.

Mark Summers won the two-mile run with a time of 10:18.6, while Sam Nesbit, whom happens to be Granite City South's assistant cross-country coach, took first place honors in the 10,000 meters with a time of 32:49. In women's competition, Tracy Feigenbutz finished first in the two-mile race, while Christine Bugnitz finished first in the 10,000 meters.

Following are the first three places in each division.

WINNING FORM. Sam Nesbit won the 10,000 meter Greater Granite Grind Saturday. Nesbit, who is assistant cross-country coach at Granite City High School South, finished the race in 32:49. The event, sponsored by the Tri-City YMCA and the Granite City Jaycees, was held in conjunction with the YMCA open house.

Statement by U.S. on Stix probe; allegations against six

Following is the text of a statement Thursday afternoon by two U.S. attorneys on behalf of the U.S. Department of Justice:

United States Attorneys Thomas E. Dittmeier (Missouri) and Frederick J. Hess (Illinois) announced today that the federal grand jury for the Eastern District of Missouri returned an indictment against James Massa, a Collinsville attorney, Arthur Miller Jr. of Granite City and Duane Skinner, a certified public accountant formerly of Granite City.

The grand jury also returned a separate indictment against Leonard Begnar, formerly vice-president of Stix & Co., for making false declarations to the grand jury and maintaining certain false books and records at Stix & Co.

Dittmeier and Hess also announced that an information had been filed against Jerry S. Maeras of Madison.

These actions are the result of an investigation of the November 1981 demise of Stix & Co., conducted by the United States attorney's offices for the Eastern District of Missouri and the Southern District of Illinois, the Securities and Exchange Commission, the Internal Revenue Service and the Federal Bureau of Investigation.

Dittmeier and Hess stated that the investigation was continuing concerning certain matters involving Thomas R. Brimberry, formerly a senior vice-president of Stix & Co., and certain other matters relating to the Stix & Co. demise.

They stated that although a plea agreement had originally been negotiated with Brimberry, information was obtained during the investigation which has caused both their offices to further evaluate that agreement.

The main indictment, consisting of 39 counts, alleges that Massa, Skinner and Miller conspired with Brimberry and Maeras to commit certain offenses against and in violation of certain laws of the U.S., including federal securities laws, mail fraud and wire fraud and conspiring to impede the Internal Revenue Service in the ascertainment, computation and collection of federal income tax.

The conspiracy involved the creation of false internal business records of Stix & Co. relating to customer accounts directly or indirectly controlled by Brimberry, Massa, Miller and Maeras. Fictitious entries were made to the records of Stix, namely the customer monthly account statements, which reflected the receipt of non-existent stock into the accounts directly or indirectly controlled by Brimberry and Maeras.

The fraudulent entries were used to increase the equity value of the customer accounts, thus enabling misappropriation from Stix of in excess of $16 million.

These fraudulent entries to the records of Stix had the effect of concealing the true business and financial condition of Stix from other Stix officers, directors and shareholders, the Securities and Exchange Commission, the NASD, the Midwest Stock Exchange, Stix's auditors, Stix's customers, the general business community and the public.

For the period ending Oct. 31, 1981, the records of Stix reflected that these accounts owed Stix an aggregate of over $20 million, but were collateralized by over $48 million of securities. In fact, over $40 million of these securities never existed.

Dittmeier and Hess stated that the indictment charges that—at the time Stix went into receivership on November 1981—Massa owed Stix in excess of $5.8 million, purportedly collateralized by securities valued at in excess of $9.3 million.

Over $7 million of these securities never existed and were merely the result of fictitious entries to the records of Stix.

The indictment charges Miller with one count of conspiracy and one other count of mail fraud.

separate information with one count of conspiracy, one count of securities fraud and one count of mail fraud.

Maximum penalties for conspiracy are five years and a $10,000 fine; for mail fraud, five years and a $10,000 fine; and for securities fraud, five years and a $10,000 fine.

In addition to the conspiracy charge against Massa and Skinner, Massa is charged with 12 counts of mail fraud, six counts of wire fraud, five counts of securities fraud, and five counts under the securities laws relating to the creation of false books and records at Stix.

If convicted, the maximum penalty for Massa relating to these charges is 145 years imprisonment.

Skinner, in addition to the conspiracy count, is charged with eight counts of mail fraud and one count of securities fraud. If convicted, the maximum penalty for Skinner relating to these charges is 50 years imprisonment, the federal statement concluded.

Hill named to handle 2 injury suits

By PAIGE ST. JOHN

The financial problems of a Pennsylvania insurance firm have forced the Madison County Housing Authority to take over its own defense in two pending lawsuits.

MCHA Attorney M. Joseph Hill has taken the two cases. The Northeastern Fire Insurance Co. pulled out of its own lawyers because of financial difficulties.

The Authority had been insured by Northeastern until a few months ago, when the company announced it could no longer cover new claims. Until recently lawyers from the insurance firm were representing MCHA in two lawsuits filed this year.

In both cases, the Authority is being sued because of injuries occurring on its property.

The board decided to set a rate of pay for Hill's work in the two lawsuits at the next meeting, in November.

One of the two suits pending was filed last month in St. Clair County. The suit also lists St. Clair Roofing

Co. as a defendant.

James Jackson is suing because of injuries sustained on steel siding being installed by St. Clair Roofing at Northgate Homes in Collinsville.

The second suit was filed in Madison County last February. A minor, Regina Johnson, was injured when playing near a dumpster at a housing project in Madison.

His mother, Leslie Johnson, filed the suit in his behalf.

In other business, Authority commissioners:—Voted to begin the search for a new executive director by advertising the open position in local newspapers and a trade publication. The ads are expected to begin in mid-November.

Wallace Altes of Applied Research Corp. advised the board to adopt a formal description for the position before interviewing any applicants. He recommended the two applications already received be sent back with a request that they be resubmitted when the position is advertised.

Altes reported he has begun a survey of housing conditions to determine what other executive directors are paid.

Following the report, commissioners voted to formalize Altes' work by approving a contract with Applied Research for aid in finding a new executive director.

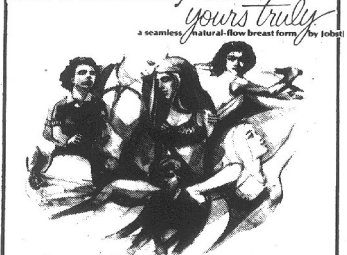

—Heard a staff report that the Fair Housing agreement passed here last month is still awaiting final approval from the Department of Housing and Urban Development.

The Authority will be ready to implement the desegregation plan once HUD approves it, a staff member said.

—Voted to send staff members Jackie Bone and Linda Belovich to a computer seminar in Wisconsin. Information obtained will be helpful if the Authority purchases its own in-house computer, the latter said.

The 'Scheme'

May, 1975, through about November, 1981. Starting about September, 1979, fictitious securities positions were created in these accounts to show a greater equity than they really had. Massa then allegedly withdrew substantial sums of money from the accounts "for his personal benefit and the benefit of others," the indictment alleges.

As of Oct. 31, 1981, Massa owed in excess of $5.8 million to Stix, which was supposed to be collateralized by securities worth more than $9.3 million. However, more than $7 million of these securities were non-existent, the document charges.

Miller, at Brimberry's direction, had an account in his own name from at least January, 1977, until about November, 1981, and during that time, used the same method, borrowing in excess of $3.4 million. The loans were collateralized by more than $5.6 million in securities, but approximately $3.9 million of the securities were non-existent, the indictment charges.

From about 1978 to November, 1981, Skinner "was aware of the fact that the accounts were fictitious and that the beneficial interest with defendant Arthur Miller Jr. in the Miller's account, it contends."

It also charges Miller and Massa with falsely filling out audit confirmation cards related to their Stix accounts and returning the cards through the mails to the auditors. The cards certified that the audits were correct, when Miller and Massa knew the information on them was incorrect, the indictment charges.

It also charges that Massa, Skinner, Miller, Brimberry, Maeras and "others known and unknown to the grand jury," received the personal benefit of funds withdrawn from Stix.

In addition to the Massa and Miller accounts, fictitious securities inflated the equity of accounts for J.A. Miller, J.A. Miller, Jr., Zoran Enterprises, RIMCO, Miller, Inc., Jerry S. Maeras and Maeras Enterprises, the grand jury charges.

These accounts listed above owed Stix more than $30 million on Oct. 31, 1981, borrowed on $48 million worth of securities in the accounts. Actually, more than $40 million of the securities were not there, according to the indictment.

That deception allowed Massa, Miller, Brimberry and Maeras to withdraw more than $16 million from Stix, it charges.

THE PROPOSED NURSING HOME

The document alleges that in 1978, JAMA filed incorporation papers with the secretary of state to create two corporations to own and manage a nursing home on the eastern edge of Granite City. Massa, Miller and Maeras planned to have Stix sell bonds to the public to finance its construction.

Massa, Brimberry and Maeras bought the land for the nursing home, but concealed any connection with Brimberry. In June, 1979, "the Granite City Board of Education initiated foreclosure proceedings on the property. Massa, Brimberry and Maeras paid the bank more than $100,000 to release the property from foreclosure. It is alleged the $100,000 came in part from a loan Massa made at the First National Bank of Collinsville and the remainder was "diverted from Stix."

Massa titled the property in the name of his personal secretary, thus concealing Brimberry's involvement from the IRS. Massa repaid his Collinsville loan with funds misappropriated from Stix, the indictment contends.

The nursing home was never constructed.

THE A. E. SHAW LOANS Massa, Brimberry and Maeras created fictitious loan documents to establish a Stix account in the name A.E. Shaw, the maiden name of Maeras' wife, Alma. A.E. Shaw was listed as president of the corporation which was to issue bonds for construction of the nursing home. Massa borrowed $50,000 from Stix, Feb. 7, 1977, and another $50,000 April 1, 1977, both loans with documents showing A. E. Shaw as the lender, the grand jury charges.

It is alleged that Massa had his personal secretary notarize the signature of A.E. Shaw on the loan agreements "at a time when he knew she had not seen anyone sign the name A.E. Shaw ... and at a time when he knew that co-conspirator (Jerry) Maeras had signed them," according to the indictment.

In all, a total of $150,000 was loaned by Stix to Massa, Brimberry and Maeras with documents indicating that the loans were being made through Stix, but the money was from A.E. Shaw. "The effect of these fraudulent loans, among other things, was to give the appearance to Stix, the Securities and Exchange Commission, the NASD and the Midwest Stock Exchange, that A. E. Shaw was a person of wealth, when in fact this was not true," the grand jury contends.

Between February, 1977, and November, 1981, Massa received in J.A. Miller's checking account $83,000 payable to A.E. Shaw, as a result of the purported loans made to Stix, it is alleged. Massa had the interest checks delivered to Brimberry and Maeras, who used them for their personal benefit, it is alleged.

Massa assisted Brimberry and Maeras in avoiding the payment of federal income taxes on these monies for at least the 1977 and 1978 tax years, it is further charged.

Skinner examined the tax returns of Maeras for 1977 through 1980, but failed to list interest from the Shaw loans in 1977 and 1978. In 1979, Skinner reported interest income to Maeras of $15,322 from the A. E. Shaw loans, even though he knew "that a portion of this interest had been paid to co-conspirator Thomas R. Brimberry." Skinner also prepared Brimberry's tax returns for 1977 through 1980 and failed to list interest received by Brimberry from the Shaw loans, it is alleged.

THE HELEN KAMADULSKI LOANS

In about September, 1978, Massa prepared a fraudulent trust agreement naming himself as trustee and Helen Kamadulski as beneficiary. Helen Kamadulski is the maiden name of Brimberry's mother-in-law. She "had no knowledge of and received no benefit from this purported trust," the grand jury stresses.

It alleges that from January, 1979, through September, 1981, loan agreements were filed with Stix, the SEC and NASD for loans from the Helen Kamadulski trust totaling $300,000. "The monies lent to Stix in this fashion had, in fact, been misappropriated from Stix," the indictment charges.

Massa also allegedly received from Stix monies totaling $100,000 in interest payments from the loans between January, 1978, and November, 1981.

THE MASSA LOANS

The indictment charges that in or about March and September, 1980, Massa initiated two loans totaling $200,000 with Stix as the borrower and Massa the lender. "Monies misappropriated from Stix were used to loan back to Stix," it is alleged. Loan agreements were filed with NASD and SEC. Between March, 1980, and November, 1981, Massa received in excess of $55,000 interest on the loans, "which he used for his personal benefit," the grand jury charges.

ACQUISITION OF STOCK

The indictment also alleges that from July, 1978, through at least February, 1980, Massa purchased 45,000 shares of Stix stock costing approximately $950,000, giving him approximately 60 percent of the total outstanding Stix stock.

The grand jury believes that money misappropriated from Stix was used to finance acquisition of the stock and that Massa, assisted by Brimberry and Maeras, used the Stix monies through Maeras Enterprises, J.A. Miller, JAMA Enterprises and James Massa to divert funds from Stix to Massa's checking accounts. The stock of National Bank of Collinsville and these funds were used to purchase Stix stock.

Massa and Brimberry had a verbal agreement to share equally the Stix stock purchased by Massa, although Massa "held the stock in his own name and exercised decision-making authority at Stix," the indictment charges. "Massa represented to Stix and others that he was the sole owner of these securities, when, in fact, this was not true," it continues.

"Massa, while exercising controlling interest of Stix, in or about December, 1979, caused the number of directors of Stix to be reduced by two members, removing the corporate counsel and the chief financial officer, and caused to be appointed to the Stix board of directors for Brimberry," according to the indictment.

Brimberry and Massa then "had effective control over the operations of Stix, which facilitated the creation of fictitious securities positions in accounts directly or indirectly controlled by defendants James Massa and Arthur Miller Jr. and co-conspirators Brimberry and Maeras, and facilitated the misappropriation from Stix of over $16 million," the jury alleges.

Massa also had the board of directors adopt a resolution granting him consulting fees of $200 an hour, retroactive to July, 1980, and received more than $75,000 from October, 1980, and November, 1981, for his services, according to the indictment, which alleges his statements-of-services were "substantially inflated."

Venice schools to file for $4,800

The Venice Board of Education has approved resolutions to transfer $11,431 in funds and to file for $4,800 in block grant money. Board members agreed to the transfer of $3,431 from Title I Fund to the Education Fund as a replacement, and $4,800 from the Transportation Fund to the Education Fund.

Also approved were the secretary's reports, the monthly financial statements for both Venice Schools and Lincoln Technical Center as well as the monthly adoption of the tax levy as recommended from the public hearing.

In other business, the board approved the filing of Chapter II application for $4,800 in block grant money to purchase three microcomputers and two printers, costing $4,000, for use in the junior high and high school. The balance of $800 will be utilized for the purchase of library books.

The board members agreed to request reimbursement from the state for protection of hazardous bus routes where students are required to cross busy intersections less than one and a half miles from the school. Hazardous crossings include one on Fourth Street and another at Highway 3, where pupils residing on Kerr Island must cross to get to school, it was noted.

After a request from a high school student to use or rent a band instrument, the board agreed to stop lending instruments in the hope that they can be kept in good condition so the band can be reactivated in the future when monies are available for an instructor. The school has not sponsored a band for about three years, due to economy cutbacks, Vickers announced.

It was suggested the School contact the Musician's Local and investigate the possibility that a member of the union could provide assistance with a band program. After an apparent misunderstanding on bidding for a jeep truck and snow plow, the board advised Vickers to seek new bids and inform those responding that only combined bids for the jeep and plow for the plow and jeep separately, with a total amount for both, will be used only if a duplicate total is received.

Discussion of how snow will be removed this winter was tabled until the next meeting.

In a final action for the night, a school volunteer policy was adopted on a 4-2 vote with one member abstaining.

JEWELRY BURGLARY

A burglar broke a Michel Jewelry display window last week and escaped with a card of birthday earrings, necklaces and pins valued at a total of $150.

Gallagher will direct mental health program

Appointment of Jim Gallagher as director of mental health services at St. Elizabeth Medical Center was announced Friday by Sister Mary Thomas, president of SEMC. He will be coordinating the various disciplines that provide mental health services to patients.

Previously to this, Gallagher was assistant director of the adolescent program at Mercy Hospital in Aurora.

He also served as a counselor in that program and as a social worker for the North Aurora Center, a sheltered care facility for the mentally handicapped.

Gallagher received his bachelor's degree in sociology from the University of Illinois in Urbana and his master's degree in administration from George Williams College in Downers Grove, Ill.

Originally from the Chicago area, Gallagher now lives in Edwardsville with his wife, Kathleen, and their two children, Matthew and Kerry.

screen program will be shown to guests of all ages. The program will feature The Three Stooges in "We Want Our Mummy," Laurel and Hardy in "Habeas Corpus," Frankenstein in "Frankenstein's Bride," and Bugs Bunny and the Road Runner, just for laughs.

The program is about 90 minutes. Show times and dates are: Friday, Oct. 29, at 7, 9 and 11 p.m.; Saturday, Oct. 30, at 7 and 9 p.m., and Sunday, Oct. 31, at 3 and 9 p.m.

Admission is 50 cents for those under the age of 12 and $1 for ages 12 and older.

Doors will open 15 minutes before the showtime and refreshments will be on sale while door prizes are awarded.

Explorer Post 10-4 sponsored the first such attraction in the Quad-City area, according to the announcement.

In other areas, a Halloween party will be hosted at the Chouteau Town Hall, from 2 to 4 p.m. on Sunday, Oct. 31, arranged by Linda Munson and Caroline Hicks, co-chairmen.

The affair is open to children through the junior high school age. Prizes will be presented to the costumed guests followed by refreshments, the chairman added.

An annual Senior Citizen's Halloween Masquerade Ball is set for Thursday, Oct. 28, from 6:30 to 9:30 p.m. at the Township Building, 2060 Delmar Ave. It has been announced by Nelson Hagnauer, Granite City Township supervisor.

Music for dancing will be by Howard Bolton and His Alleycat Band and prizes will be awarded to those in costume.

Madison merchants will display posters prepared by the public and parochial students in Madison, which will be judged in several categories. The contest is sponsored by the Madison Business Organization and the Madison Recreation Department. Judging will take place on Wednesday, according to Sam Dynas, recreation superintendent.

Both Harris and Blair Schools in Madison will hold parades and parties.

Pupils of Harris School will participate in a parade beginning at 1 p.m. Friday, Oct. 29, at the corner of Sixth Street and Alton Avenue, proceeding on Alton Avenue to Third Street, then west to Madison Avenue, then to Sixth Street and returning to the school.

Classroom parties will be in session after the parade with refreshments and prizes provided by the Mother's Club. Boys will award three prizes or each grade level on the basis of the scariest, cutest and most original costume.

Blair School students will take part in a parade to begin at 1:15 p.m. Friday, Oct. 29, followed by classroom parties when they return to the school.

The students will parade in costumes from the school down Mercedia Avenue to Market Street, then west on Market to Weaver and north to College Street on the return to the school.

A Halloween Monstrama Show and Haunted House for children of Venice residents only is planned by the Venice Park Board for Friday, Oct. 29, from 7 to 10 p.m. at the Venice Recreation Center, according to Earl Hogan, recreation committee chairman. Each child attending the festive fall event must be accompanied by a parent, the chairman noted.

All those in costume will be requested to parade around the recreation center and in front of the park commissioner, who will select the winners by age group and style of costume category.

During the evening, prizes will be presented and sandwiches and punch will be served to the young guests.

On the more serious side of the observance, the Quad-City police chiefs, Ronald Vizzer, Don Brickell and Farris Smith, of Granite City, Madison and Venice, respectively, announce they suggest children be allowed to "trick or treat" through the cities from 6 to 9 p.m. only on Sunday, Oct. 31.

To ensure the safety of area children this Halloween, St. Elizabeth Medical Center again will X-ray trick or treat candy free of charge. Parents may bring their children's candy to the X-ray department of the medical center between 7 and 10 p.m. on Halloween night, Oct. 31, using either of the 21st Street entrances.

Any dangerous metal object will show up on the X-rays. However, X-rays cannot detect non-metallic substances, such as ground glass or chemicals, so parents are being advised to inspect candy carefully before allowing youngsters to eat any of it.

Parents will be asked to remove any coins from the bags, since coins show up on X-rays. Each X-ray will take about one minute, after which the child will be given his candy and X-ray to keep.

Special Festival Tuesday

The fifth Very Special Arts Festival for the Metro-East area will be Tuesday at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville.

Nearly 1,000 handicapped students, their parents, and teachers are expected to attend.

The purpose of the festival is to show teachers how to make better use of the arts in the teaching of handicapped children.

About a dozen arts specialists will make presentations to the children and the teachers, and there will be numerous booths and activity centers for the children to make things.

There will be seven festivals in Illinois this fall. They're sponsored nationally by the National Committee, Arts for the Handicapped, and in Illinois by the Illinois Arts Council and the Illinois State Board of Education.

Sponsors for the festival at SIUE include the university, the Lewis and Clark Chapter of the Council for Exceptional Children, and TENCO, a ten-county educational cooperative in Southern Illinois.

Bruce Davis, 30, an inmate, escaped Sunday from the Menard state prison, Chester, after allegedly killing an employee there. He headed north on Route Three in a light blue 1972 Chevrolet Impala.

SIUE enrollment is up from last year's figure for the ninth consecutive quarter. There are 10,258 students this fall.

A Depression-style tent city was created Saturday in Fairgrounds Park, St. Louis, as one of 33 "Reagan ranches" to be established in the U.S. by critics of U.S. economic policies and progress. Intended to recall "Hooverville" areas of the 1930s, the tents are related to the Nov. 2 election campaign.

Henkhaus says foe inaccurate

Madison County Treasurer Mick Henkhaus said Friday his Nov. 2 ballot foe, Bob Barton, was inaccurate in many of the comments in an Oct. 21 article. "Barton refutes published statements by his opponent."

Labeling the Barton quotes as "Republican rhetoric," Democrat Henkhaus said his staff has been out from 31 to 27 at a saving of $296,000 to taxpayers over the past four years, including salaries and benefits.

He contended that his budget has risen only 10 percent during a time in which pay hikes negotiated by other officials boosted his payroll costs 31 percent.

The treasurer said his 30-day delay of the second real estate tax payment deadline (90 days instead of 30) is helpful to property owners despite Barton's effort to minimize it.

He acknowledged that he hired his (Henkhaus) brother but said it was only for a three-week period in which the expert in personnel administration and economics provided a valuable analysis of office procedures.

Henkhaus said he has tried hard to collect mobile home taxes despite "difficultly related" to the Illinois statutes; he would welcome and seriously consider any solutions Barton or others might suggest.

The treasurer differed with the way Barton characterized his relationship with the Bank of Edwardsville and banks in general; Such campaign statements are "absurd," he asserted.

He said he believes some of Barton's remarks reflect desperation and also a lack of understanding of tax billing responsibilities. He pointed out that yearly bills total 106,000, including 62,000 sent directly to taxpayers.

Henkhaus said it is "a shame" that election campaigns sometimes generate baseless allegations, such as criticism of the way he distributes tax funds.

GC Steel hearing Tuesday

The Illinois Pollution Control Board will conduct a pollution variance hearing at 7 p.m. Tuesday at the Granite City Hall, 2000 Edison Ave., intended to solicit public comment on the request of Granite City Steel Division of National Steel for a variance to allow intermittent uncontrolled coke pushing from its existing coke ovens in Batteries "A" and "B" during the rebuilding of coke ovens in Battery "C."

Granite City Steel estimates that the uncontrolled pushing will occur during approximately 176 calendar days intermittently over a period of 357 construction days, or about 18 months.

The Illinois Environmental Protection Agency has recommended the request be granted.

Seven objections to the request have been received by the state board from area residents, including Third Ward Alderman Carl Kittel, member of Granite City's aldermanic air pollution committee, and Theodore Macios, former technical secretary of the Granite City Air Pollution Control Board.

Friday, Kittel, First Ward Alderman Casner Skubish and City Engineer Monroe Brewer met with Granite City Steel representatives to discuss the issue and tour the construction site.

Kittel expects the group of objectors to present a statement at the hearing tomorrow.

Milton-Thomas race in Dist. 22

HERBERT MILTON

Herbert "Junior" Milton, 51, is running Nov. 2 for his fourth term on the Madison County Board from District 22.

A Democrat, the veteran official is being opposed by Republican Richard L. Thomas.

Milton initially was elected to the County Board in 1972 and was re-elected in 1976 and 1980. The current term was shortened due to the new census and redistricting.

The elective term to be decided next week will be two years, as determined by a selection process conducted this fall.

A longtime Granite City Steel employee and a widower, he is the father of five children. Milton is a member of Veterans of Foreign Wars Post 1300, Antivets Post 51 and Masonic Lodge 835.

He has resided in the county's 22nd District for 34 years and has been active in serving the needs of that geographic area.

His efforts on the board and its committees have been devoted to providing expanded space for county offices, creating additional courtrooms, negotiating with county governmental employees, modernizing the Madison County Nursing Home, planning and completing new jail facilities, improving the life of senior citizens, upgrading county roads, increasing police protection, stimulating development of new residential and recreational areas, and maintaining an effective county licensing program.

RICHARD THOMAS

Richard L. Thomas, 27, 2418 Benton St., is the Republican nominee for the County Board "in Madison County District 22 on Nov. 2.

A process chemist for the Clark Oil and Refinery Co., he is married to Beverly Joanne Thomas and they have a son, Nicholas Alexander Thomas, 17 months old.

The candidate has a bachelor of arts degree in chemistry from Greenville College, Greenville, Ill., and the degree of master of science in biochemistry from Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville.

He is treasurer of Granite City's Gideons International group, and director of young teen activities at Central Free Methodist Church in Pontoon Beach.

He comments, "I want to contribute my abilities to the people of Madison County. I want to help the county in using its present resources to better meet the needs of its citizens."

Thomas adds, "The most important issue now facing Madison County is high unemployment. The people of the county would rather be working than waiting in unemployment lines. The county needs to respond to this."

She has performed as the Peppermint girl with the North High Peppermint Players, is a member of the Miners and has sung in the Illinois State All-State Choir and the Calvary Baptist Youth Choir. Miss Smith is an honor roll student and is a member of Job's Daughters.

The Teenager of the Month is selected by a panel of students and teachers at each of the two Granite City high schools. Because of communication problems this month, a student from South High was not selected. Basis for final selection includes citizenship, scholarship, leadership and multiple achievement. Students are nominated by students and teachers in their respective schools, then the nominees are screened by a student their respective schools. Nominations are accepted after the first Monday of each month. Overall teenagers of the year also will be selected at the end of the Spring term.

"When the water used at Shell's Wood River Manufacturing Complex is returned to the river, it meets Shell's high standards, and the government's."

Burt Schneider

Shell salutes Burt Schneider for his concern with waste water treatment and 40 years of service with Shell.

People depend on Shell's petroleum products. But they also depend on a healthy environment.

Shell's Wood River Manufacturing Complex refines about one-fourth of the Shell gasoline produced in the United States, in addition to aviation fuel, motor oil, asphalt and even chemicals for film, herbicides, house paints and more.

It's a big job. But one that can be done with the utmost regard for the environment—with the help of people like Burt Schneider.

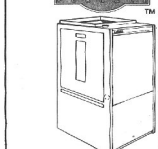

Burt's area of expertise is waste water treatment. As an Operations Supervisor, he makes sure the equipment is well maintained and regulations are met. "The waste water at Wood River is treated by biological filtration followed by what is called the activated sludge method. When the water is returned to the Mississippi River, it meets or is better than state and Federal requirements."

Thanks to Burt Schneider, the mighty Mississippi stays clean as it passes through the Wood River Manufacturing Complex.

Methodist class donates funds

The "Maid M. Tolleson Sunday School Class" agreed to send donations to the Baraca Phila Union, which is marking its anniversary this month and to the family of the late Susie Kniffen, as a memorial.

Paula Smith and Ella Ray Smith served refreshment to the group at a meeting held in the church parlors of Niedringhaus United Methodist Church. Mary Ahlvers, class president and teacher, offered the invocation.

The financial statement was read by Mabel Stewart, followed by devotion by Miss Smith on "Martin Luther, Man of Faith." He was born Nov. 10, 1483, and during the year it is expected much will be written about him in both the Christian and secular press, she added.

A letter from Miss Louise Fendley, former member who now resides in Wisconsin, was read. Members agreed to inquire about sending the Sunshine Magazine to class members who are shut-ins. Mabel Stewart was appointed to secure information in relation to the project.

Other presenters were Genevra Wallis, Olga Tierney and Mary Hiller.

Chouteau Township to stop free limb pickup of homes

Chouteau Township residents who are in the process of "trimming trees" are advised that the township will not pick up the debris after today, according to Wilfred "Bud" Eberhardt, township highway commissioner.

"With the cut-back in employees and the need to continue road work before the winter season, I do not have enough man power to continue this work which has been a courtesy policy only," Eberhardt explained.

He added, "If at any future time we can 'pick-up' tree limbs I will get a notice in the paper, but we cannot take care of eight or 10 truckloads at one residence."

Party seeks big slash in state taxes

City, county and state taxation should be controlled by taxpayers to "discipline" the government and keep spending down. That is the theme of the newly formed Illinois Taxpayers Party.

The party will be on the Nov. 2 ballot along with Republicans, Democrats and Libertarians.

Melvin Jones, a Collinsville businessman running for lieutenant governor on the Taxpayers' slate, wants less government intervention.

"I'm in favor of cutting taxes any time, under any pretense, for any reason in almost any way," asserted Jones.

His running mate, John Roche, said he believes "the power to tax is the power to destroy."

Gubernatorial candidate Roche, a Palos Park physician who formed the third-party slate, was defeated by Gov. James Thompson in the Republican primary race in March.

Both Roche and Jones are running with the motto, "A victory for the Taxpayers Party will eliminate taxation without taxation and guaranteed escalation."

The platform focuses entirely on reduction of taxes.

It calls for a 10 percent slash in taxes by relying on principles that would remove counterproductive rules, regulations and restrictions.

The platform also includes restoring state government to its constitutional functions, retaining a competitive free market system, and returning to taxpayers the control of city, county and state taxing powers.

Main thrust of the party is to "help people regain their respect for government."

The Taxpayers and Libertarians both see a limited role for government. The Taxpayers Party focuses on cutting taxes and getting private industry to take over some government services.

The Libertarians agree. Additionally, their concept is based on individuals' rights to do what they want.

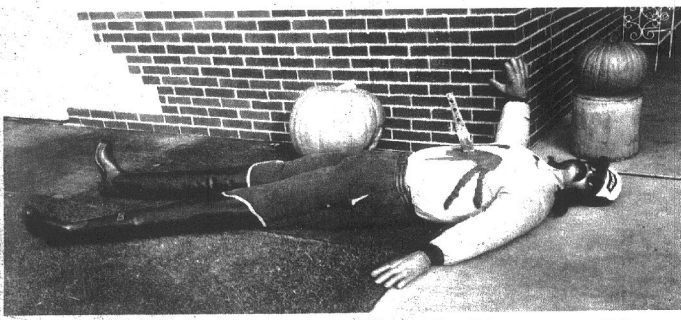

Thirty-eight-year-old Ben Armstrong, an editor running for governor on the Libertarian slate, proposes financing education, police protection and other services through user fees rather than taxes.

"BARNEY" IN REPOSE. The stuffed dummy pictured in the front yard of the home Mr. and Mrs. William Barnhart, 2405 St. Clair Ave., was created by their son, Doug, and a friend, Mike McInerney, as a Halloween decoration. "Barney" has caused some turmoil as unsuspecting passers-by have mistaken him as a real man lying in the family's yard.

Who's the dummy here?

By NANCY WEIL
of the Press-Record

Doug Barnhart, 2405 St. Clair Avenue, may very well have pulled the best Halloween trick of the year — or the worst. At first glance, the stuffed dummy lying on the lawn with a knife protruding from its chest, its arms and legs stuck straight out in deathly stiffness, looks very real, almost frightening.

So real are the looks of "Barney" that passersby have stopped to offer assistance in getting the "body" moved. One woman even called the police late last week to report that she had been murdered on St. Clair Avenue and stuffed underneath a swing in the Barnharts' carport.

A neighbor heard on his police scanner that a body was stuffed under a swing at the Barnharts' house and police were asked to "respond immediately," Barnhart said. The 21-year-old laughed. His mother, Nancy, laughed.

Two police cars with two officers in each responded to the call. One of the policemen turned on a flashlight and started checking out "Barney."

"He asked if I was the one who stuffed the body under the swing," Barnhart said. "I told him it was just a Halloween decoration."

Barnhart, the son of Mr. and Mrs. William Barnhart, was sufficiently inspired to create "Barney" after seeing other such decorations adorning the lawns around town. But to Barnhart, the dummies never seemed very real.

So, he and Mike McInerney decided to create their own decoration. After purchasing a bale of hay, the two stuffed the dummy, but it was not big enough to appear real.

By adding a pair of hip-wading boots, "Barney" was given the illusion of height. The blue work pants he wears are cut off where the hip waders begin. Beige gloves make the hands look real.

Barnhart tried to hang "Barney" on hooks for hanging plants in front of the picture window, on the afternoon of Oct. 17, but the dummy started to swing around in the wind and there was fear that he would fall apart.

To save "Barney," Barnhart took him down and laid him in the yard, next to the house. The next day, he decided to add hair and a moustache to improve "Barney's" life (or death) like appearance.

It did not take long for the trouble to start. A man stopped and said that "Barney" had "scared the heck out of" him. Others, however, have stopped to say how real they think "Barney" looks and to compliment Barnhart on the job.

At first, Barnhart said, he was afraid of "shaking up" older passersby, but he said he has received many comments from older drivers and pedestrians who like the idea of having a real-looking dummy.

When Barnhart was stuffing the dummy in the driveway on Oct. 17, he got his first comment. "A car stopped and a woman got out and said, 'Oh my God, do you need help?' I told her it was just a Halloween decoration."

Others have told the Barnharts they are "sick" for having "Barney" in their yard. Amid all the confusion, the Barnharts have kept their collective sense of humor. It is not certain how "Barney," whose name is written on the left side of an old work shirt he wears that belonged to Barnhart's father, feels about the situation.

Mrs. Barnhart does offer a word of advice for those who think "Barney" is real: "If people would just stop and think about it." She said that it is obvious "Barney" is not real.

From the street, just passing in a car or walking on the sidewalk, "Barney" looks real enough to send shivers down the spine or make the heart jump. But not to worry, it's just the ultimate Halloween decoration doing its job.

WORKER'S COMP.

WORKSHOP TUESDAY

The Illinois Department of Commerce and Community Affairs (DCCA) will co-sponsor the Illinois Annual Worker's Compensation Workshop tomorrow at the Hilton Hotel in Springfield. This year's topic is focusing on cost containment.

The yearly meeting is co-sponsored with the Illinois Industrial Commission, the Illinois Department of Insurance and the Illinois Department of Labor. The conference is also being offered at the Itasca Country Club on Oct. 28.

"These meetings have proven especially beneficial to Illinois' small businesses," said DCCA Director Peter B. Fox, "who do not necessarily have a specialized staff to work with such regulations and requirements as workers comp. By sponsoring these kinds of workshops we are honoring the Governor's commitment to small business."

The 1982 conference will cover containment of workers compensation costs, how to use the new competitive pricing bill and working effectively with the Illinois Industrial Commission.

The fee for the workshop is $10. For more information on the meeting, or to register for any of the conferences, interested persons should contact Vicki Kovski at DCCA, 1-800-252-2223.

GC studies alternatives as trash collection contract nears renewal

Granite City Council members are weighing all their options for trash and sludge disposal as the city's current contract with the Millam East Division of SCA Services, Inc., approaches its July 1983 expiration date.

The discussion session was attended by the sanitation, wastewater treatment plant and finance aldermanic committee members last week, prior to the regular city council meeting.

Sixth Ward Alderman Walter Milton, finance committee chairman who conducted the caucus, said he and Alderman Sam Whitmer, Second Ward, conducted a preliminary talk with SCA Services representatives to inform them the city will be considering several options, among them renegotiating the present SCA Services contract.

No figures were discussed with SCA Services at the initial meeting, but some aldermen are concerned the city might face a substantial increase. Next year the city will be charged for sludge disposal, an expense bypassed in the current contract.

Milton said he, the mayor and the city engineer toured the St. Louis trash disposal system to view alternatives other than those offered by SCA Services. The alderman distributed literature on disposal containers now used by St. Louis. Granite City could decide to buy its own equipment for use with a city-operated trash system or to contract with another service.

The containers used by St. Louis would offer the advantage of less manpower, since the units could be automatically emptied into a disposal truck.

The finance committee plans to give aldermen about a month to submit other suggestions, before appointing an ad hoc committee to tour the systems in use by neighboring municipalities.

Quash rumors of tenant
for A.O. Smith facility

By NANCY WEIL
of the Press-Record

Corporate representatives from various businesses have been touring the closed A.O. Smith Corp., plant on Missouri Avenue, causing rumors to fly that a purchase agreement is near.

While such rumors had been heard even before the plant closed operations Oct. 1, 1980, with the two-year mark of the closing just passed, people are talking with renewed hope of a possible purchase.

One corporation rumored to have purchased the facility is McDonnell Douglas of St. Louis. Such talk has been going on for over a year and a spokesman have been denying it for that long. Friday, at the corporate headquarters, one spokesman said she checked out that rumor last week. She reported that it was not true then and it is not true now.

Residents reported to the Press-Record that they saw "white collar types in suits" going in and out of A.O. Smith and stopped to find out what was happening. They said were told that the men were from McDonnell Douglas and that the corporation had purchased the plant and would be opening a landing gear assembly facility that would provide 3,000 jobs. They also were allegedly told that the corporation had purchased A.O. Smith long ago.

Officials from A.O. Smith,

McDonnell Douglas and the Tri-Cities Area Chamber of Commerce all denied the rumor.

Floyd Scott, acting plant manager at A.O. Smith, said the plant was shown to someone recently, but that a purchase agreement has not been reached with anyone.

Scott said he does not know to whom the plant was shown, because real estate personnel have been providing the tours. He laughed when told of the McDonnell Douglas rumor and said he has heard similar stories.

It was, however, confirmed that the plant was shown at the beginning of last week. "I've been taking people over since before I got here," Allen Richardson, executive vice president of the Tri-Cities Area Chamber of Commerce said. Richardson has been with the Chamber for about a year and has provided showings for "a fair number" of corporations, he says.

"I've been showing it ever since it closed," he said, but added that a purchase agreement has not been established. He would not say if McDonnell Douglas has viewed the plant.

"There is not any truth to any of the rumors, so far as I know," he said.

Susan Flowers, spokeswoman for McDonnell Douglas, checked with corporate sources about the rumor and reported, "There is no substance to the Granite City-McDonnell Douglas purchase rumor. Nobody has indicated to me that there's ever been anybody there (to tour the plant)."

The A.O. Smith plant here manufactured automotive frames for full-sized General Motors autos and was forced to shut down when consumers started to buy smaller vehicles and car frames became virtually obsolete. The shutdown was preceded by a lengthy strike by United Auto Workers.

The plant opened in 1954. At one time, it employed 1,400 workers. The facility is 415,000 square-feet and the corporate headquarters are located in Milwaukee, Wis.

Mishap ends in driver's arrest

Three persons were injured in an accident at Maryville and Pontoon roads at 4:20 a.m. Sunday when a southbound vehicle operated by Larry G. Johnson, 20, of 2710 Cayuga St., halted for a traffic light on Maryville Road, reportedly was struck from the rear by an auto driven by Jo Ann Lucas, 36, of 3210 Killarney Drive.

Police alleged finding a cup which had contained an alcoholic beverage and ice cubes lying on the floor on the driver's side of Mrs. Lucas' vehicle. She was taken by ambulance to St. Elizabeth Medical Center, where she allegedly declined to answer an officer's request to take a blood alcohol test and was charged with driving while under the influence of alcohol and failing to reduce speed to avoid an accident.

Also reported injured were Johnson and Steve Phelps, 19, of 3307 Franklin Ave., a passenger in the Lucas auto.

Madison busy video system for Harris School pupils

By PATHAY LUTZ

Madison school board officials voted Thursday to approve the purchase of a new video system for the children in Harris School. Quoting a price of $2,713 for the entire system, the Communiflex Corporation of St. Louis was the only company to return a bid to the school board.

According to assistant superintendent Wade James, the new system will include a color portable camera, color portable VHS recorder, rechargeable battery pack, camera mounting, several attachments and carrying cases for the equipment.

"Principal David Becherer will be in charge of the new system," James said. "This equipment will be added to the media center presently being developed by Becherer."

According to Becherer, the video system will be placed in the media center where teachers and students can use it as a teaching aid. "We will use the system to show educational films and to film our own productions such as plays and events," Becherer stated. "I think that the new system will be an exciting addition to the media center," he added.

James also indicated that the system could be obtained and ready for use within one week.

In other actions, the board approved a request from the YMCA to use the school for a floor hockey program. According to superintendent John Palchick, the program, scheduled to serve the 8 through 10 age group, should begin in early November.

"The YMCA hopes to attract a better response through this outreach program because of the locality," Palchick stated. Palchick also indicated that a basketball program would follow the floor hockey program after its conclusion in December.

How much is a board member worth

How much should members of the Madison County Board be paid in 1983-84?

The board last week voted 23-2 to give its chairman 7 percent raises next year and the following year.

But it rejected 14-1 a move to raise each member's $5,500 yearly pay to $5,885 in 1984, $6,295 in 1985 and $6,737 in 1986.

"I cannot vote myself a raise under these circumstances," William Webb, Granite City, said. "We're laying down people off who have a lot of years of service to Madison County, and we're saying the unions may have to take a cut."

James Hell, Godfrey, did not agree with Webb. Hell, defeated in the March primary and now in the role of a "lame duck," said he thinks raises are needed to attract competent people to run the board.

"God bless Bill Aery (who beat Hell in March). I don't want him sitting in this chair getting $5,900 to represent my people of Godfrey," Hell said.

"I'm a lame duck, but if my constituents would want me for that increase, I wouldn't want to serve because they don't understand what a board member must do."

Before the board voted down its own pay increase, Hell wanted the bars same

No board member seconded Hell's motion despite his lengthy speech.

"You're responsible for the entire county, to see that it stays together," Hell said. "This position has not had an increase for five years."

"If you want decent people, you have to make them willing to take the heat."

Although Chairman Nelson Hagnauer agreed with Hell and said the board members are entitled to a raise, Don McLean, Edwardsville, said money is not the prime motivation for his serving on the board.

"I would like to be a board member if I was donating my time or if my salary was increased to $10,000," McLean said.

"We're expected to be looked at as leaders, especially in the impending restriction of spending."

Those who voted against the increase for board members were Beane, Bosch, Dalton, Dunsten, Lubber, McLean, Morris Miles of Mitchell, retiring Richard Peck of Nameki Township, Roberts, Schmittling, Senanin, Dorothy Spence, Stalcup and Webb.

Voting for the raises were Roderick Bauder of Venice, Bode, Frank Duko of Madison, Vasil Efimoff of Granite City, Franden, Griffin, Haine, Hell, Little, Vivod, and Herbert "Junior" Milton of Granite City. Homer Henke, Louis Whitsett and Donald Dreith were absent.

Troop 46 honors four at Court of Honor

Troop 46, of Nameki School, opened the year with a Court of Honor. Pedro Patrol, gave the flag ceremony, followed by a prayer from Karen Jones, Nameki PTA president, and a special welcome from Scoutmaster Don Lane.

David Lane, outgoing senior patrol leader, introduced those making presentations. Recognition of advancement was conducted by advancement chairman, Donna Lane.

The following scouts achieved the Tenderfoot badge: Craig Hall, Stephen Lane, Michael Diller, Andy Smith, Brad Choat, and Greg Koberna. Bill Hefner was awarded the First Class badge.

Merit badge recipients included Jeff Teenburg, basketball and coin collecting; Bill Hefner, rowing, wilderness survival; David Lane, rowing; Stephen Lane, swimming, letterwork, basketball; Kirk Meador, swimming; and Jim Whitsett, First year pine were given to Kirk Meador, Randy

Smith, and Andy Smith. Jan. 22 year pins to David Lane, Joe Basarich, Jeff Isenburg, and Roger Basarich.

Special recognition was given newly elected Order of the Arrow members David Lane, Jeff Isenburg, Bill Hefner, and Randy Smith. Each of these Order of the Arrow candidates had completed his ordeal either at the summer or fall camp held at Camp Sunnen in Potosi, Mo.

Special committee reports were given by Randy Smith, camping chairman, who announced that the horseback trail was held this month. A Washington County Campout will be Nov. 12, 13 and 14 with the scouts leaving Friday night from Nameki School, he added. Fund raising efforts are once again underway. Roger Basarich, fund raising chairman, announced a candy sale with bars same at fifty cents, and he set the date for the chili supper for Jan. 22.

A treasurer's report was given by John Stone. Newly-elected Senior Patrol Leader Bill Hefner introduced his Assistant Senior Patrol Leader Joe Basarich who presented this year's adult leadership: Scoutmaster, Don Lane, assistant scoutmaster, John Harper; committee chairman, Donna Hall; advancement chairman, Donna Lane; fund raising chairman, Roger Basarich; assistant fund raising chairman, Jim Choat; treasurer, John Stone; camping chairman, Randy Smith; publicity, Jane Senburg; auxiliary chairman and assistant, Sharon Meyer and Carol Whitsett; committee members, Pat Hefner and Sandy Smith.

Humorous skits were presented by scouts and the closing was given by the Raccoon Patrol. Refreshments were furnished by the Ladies Auxiliary, were served by Sharon Meyer.

ALLEGED TRESPASS IN EMERGENCY ROOM
Dave A. LaRose, 30, of 1800 Delmar Ave., was arrested at St. Elizabeth Medical Center at 9:45 p.m. Friday and charged with criminal trespass to land.

A security employee told officers that earlier the same night, LaRose twice had come to the emergency room, then refused to be treated and had been sent home by taxi. When LaRose was asked to leave the third time and allegedly declined, police were called.

Plan 50-bed alcohol and drug center

St. Elizabeth Medical Center of Granite City is in the process of submitting an application to the Illinois Health Facilities Planning Board for authority to establish a 50-bed alcohol and chemical dependency unit.

The application is based on recommendations of a committee of Edwardsville residents.

Members of the committee who have been studying health care needs in their community submitted a list of recommendations to the administration of St. Elizabeth Medical Center at a meeting Oct. 14.

The committee was formed earlier this year to participate in planning health care facilities that will be built on a 30-acre tract of land SEMC has purchased in Edwardsville. The committee also has funded three projects for the community.

1. Alcohol-chemical dependency care.
2. Outpatient rehabilitation services which include stroke rehab, physical rehab, cardiopulmonary rehab, home care, chemotherapy and audiology.

3. Life care (housing for non-elderly).
4. Although "surgicent" and urgent care facilities also had been discussed, the committee agreed that these services already are being adequately provided at the present time. Duplication of services or direct competition with existing services were not needed, the group concluded.

The recommendations will be further studied by the Finance Committee and Planning Committee of the SEMC board of directors.

National Steel

"The current decline in interest rates is a promising omen for the eventual revival of consumer purchasing. However, at this time, our outlook for demand in the fourth quarter fails to show any improvement."

"In fact, demand in the steel sectors of our business has softened in the fourth quarter, virtually assuring further losses for National in this period," Love added.

Businesses were reorganized during the quarter into six self-contained profit centers, recognizing the evolution to a diversified operating company.

The steel group includes iron ore, limestone and steamship operations in addition to four steel plants.

Abnormally low demand and extremely low prices for most steel products continued to reflect overall weakness in the economy and the impact of excessively high levels of imported steel in the third quarter.

As a result, the group's steel mills operated near only 45 percent of capacity during the quarter.

The operating loss for the combined group in the third quarter, exclusive of non-recurring plant write-offs and LIFO adjustments, was $65.9 million.

Of this amount, the operating loss for the steel plants was $56 million versus $50 million in the second quarter this year.

The loss from idled iron ore operations in the third quarter was $11 million versus a small loss in the second quarter.

Steel production in the third quarter was 1,366,631 tons, 36 percent below the 2,104,914 tons produced in the third quarter last year. For nine months, production totaled 4,349,361 tons, 34 percent below the 6,582,755 tons produced in the same period last year.

Steel shipments in the third quarter were 1,865,433 tons, 19 percent below the 2,300,000 tons shipped in the third quarter last year.

Shipments totaled 3,893,097 tons, 26 percent below the 5,229,861 tons shipped in the same period last year.

Bookings for the fourth quarter are substantially below the third-quarter level at this time, reflecting not only the normal seasonal downturn in tin mill products and construction markets, but also weaker automotive demand.

Since the first of this year, lower production levels have resulted in 3,400 steel plant employees being placed on layoff. At this time, 18,500 are employed and 8,900 are on layoff.

Indict five

maintained the books and records and managed the affairs of various corporations and businesses, including Miller Excavating, Inc., LDN Investments and RTS Investments, the latter also called RTS Investments. Maers is described as "an officer, director and shareholder of Miller Excavating and maintained, at Brimberry's direction, two customer accounts at Stix in which securities were bought and sold."

The indictment alleges that Brimberry and Maers, "co-conspirators but not as defendants in this indictment," along with Massa, Miller and Skinner, "unlawfully, wilfully and knowingly did combine, conspire, confederate and agree, together and with each other and with other persons whose names are known and unknown to the grand jury, to commit certain offenses."

It contends that they used the mails and facilities of national security exchanges and transmitted wire communications (telephone or teletype) in "executing a scheme..." to defraud. It also is alleged that they impeded the Department of the Treasury (federal income taxes) and Securities and Exchange Commission with false records keeping.

Additional details of the alleged conspiracy and lengthy indictments and felony informational document will appear elsewhere in today's Press-Record and in subsequent editions.

LEAVES FOR BASIC Alan Krause, 18, son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Krause Sr., 2925 Dale Ave., left Oct. 15 for basic training in the U.S. Army. He reported to Fort Knox, Ky., and plans to study diesel mechanics after basic training. Krause attended Granite City High School South.

Knights to aid mentally retarded with candy sales this weekend

Some 300 councils in the Illinois Knights of Columbus are beginning to make plans for the annual weekend fund-raising effort for the mentally retarded slated for Oct. 29 through 30.

Last year the Knights raised in excess of $1 million for the mentally handicapped and this year the co-chairmen of the program, Ronald A. Ziemba of Mt. Prospect and James E. Collinsworth of Matteson, expect to top that record collectively by 10 percent.

Gus Sundermeier of Oak Lawn, former chairman of the K of C Mentally Retarded Drive, is chairman of the Knights' charitable activity programs which includes the Catholic fraternal society's National Apostolate program on secular campuses throughout the state, the State Disaster Fund, as well as the mentally retarded drive.

Co-Chairman Ziemba announced this week that the goal for the '82 MR drive is $1,111,111.11 and he ceremoniously contributed the 11 cents saying "Now there's only seven cents to concentrate upon."

The two-day fund-raising drive is receiving greater public acceptance each year because people realize that nearly all the money collected is returned to the community from where it was solicited.

Last year local councils made substantial contributions to the sheltered workshops, special schools, associations, and mentally retarded organizations in their Illinois communities.

In the Archdiocese of Chicago more than 100 councils collected in excess of $402,700 last year for the mentally retarded. After deducting the cost of the candy and 10 percent of the gross for statewide projects like the Illinois Special Olympics, Inc., the balance of the money was distributed to approved mentally retarded organizations.

In the Joliet Diocese, the Knights raised in excess of $123,800 and more than $131,500 in the Rockford Diocese (close to 90 percent higher than the previous year). Peoria Diocesan Knights collected more than $138,560. Springfield Diocese topped $119,000, and the Belleville Diocese drive grossed in excess of $94,600.

Several thousand dollars swelled the '81 MR drive when two large food chains in the Chicago area donated 5 percent of the purchases made by the Knights and their friends over a three-day span.

More than $100,000 has been donated by the Knights from their state fund for the mentally retarded to help underwrite the summer and winter games in which the special youngsters participate. Darrell W. Beck of Decatur, immediate past state deputy of the Illinois Knights, is president of the Illinois Special Olympics and has been active with this MR project for several years.

Since the campaign was begun in 1970, gross receipts from the K of C Mentally Retarded program are in excess of $7 million.

Under the terms of the Knights' project, 10 percent of the gross collected each year is placed in a K of C State Fund which is used to provide support for major mentally retarded projects.

The fund, entitled, K of C State Fund, is governed by guidelines set up in compliance with the Internal Revenue Service, Illinois' attorney general's office, and the Knights' national headquarters in New Haven, Conn.

For several years the Knights sponsored a lead-mobilized team by technicians from the Illinois Association for Retarded Citizens. More recently the Knights have been donating substantial sums of money to the Illinois Special Olympics, Inc.

The candy product used in "selling" the program, plus minimal promotional costs of the participating councils, are the only expenses deducted. All the money collected during the two-day drive (less expenses) is placed in a charitable trust. Upon request of the local council money is donated to specified community mentally retarded organizations.

The total expenses to raise the $1 million-plus for the '81 drive were less than 13 percent, according to State Charitable Activities Director Sundermeier, a certified public accountant by profession.

In order to give the program as broad a coverage as possible, volunteers from several to the community mentally retarded organizations, students and members of the K of C families participate in the two-day drive.

Just as in past years, both Knights and volunteers will be working intersections and highways waving canisters and wearing "K of C Help Retarded Children" orange-colored jackets.

Bridge mishaps forecast winter hazards to come

Friday morning's light frost, combined with scattered fog in some areas of the Quad-Cities, apparently accounted for a series of vehicular mishaps on the McKinley Bridge in Venice.

None of those involved reportedly was injured, but one motorist was ticketed for driving without a valid license.

Telephone callers contacting the Press-Record early Friday complained about icy conditions on the bridge deck and the necessity of motorists to weave between construction areas. A quantity of salt was spread on the bridge surface about 8 a.m. Friday after police notified the Venice Street Department of a dangerous situation, it was learned.

The problem started, however, about 7 a.m.

Friday when a westbound vehicle operated by Henry Rice, 172 Viola Jones Homes, Venice, which already had passed the bridge's central superstructure, reportedly skidded across the roadway and struck the railing on the south side of the bridge and then retraced its path and hit the north side railing.

Two accidents, each involving two vehicles and separated by only a few feet, happened at 7:53 a.m. Friday near the top of the exit approach road to the toll booths on the Venice side of the bridge.

All four motorists were eastbound when a vehicle operated by Norman Peck, Rural Route Two, Box 7060, Granite City, and an auto ahead of him driven by Sherilyn Wallace, Alton, were involved in a collision.

Moments later, another mishap occurred when Carolyn Darr, St. Louis, succeeded in stopping her car to avoid the first collision and was struck from the rear by an auto operated by Kevin Moran, also of St. Louis.

ARTIST FEATURED IN VIDEO SERIES

The paintings of Georgia O'Keeffe, a nationally recognized artist, will be featured in the video series at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville, today through Friday.

The free shows are scheduled in the Video Lounge, on the second floor of the University Center. Show times are Wednesday and Friday at 12:30 and 1:30 p.m.; Tuesday and Thursday at 10:30 and 11:30 a.m., and today and Tuesday at 8:30 p.m.

At 8:32 a.m. Friday, a westbound pickup truck operated by Patrick Jateff, 3221 Bluebird Lane, apparently was entering the middle span of the bridge when the vehicle slid and struck the superstructure. Jateff was charged with not having a valid license.

PARADE TO BE SHOWN

For those who did not make it to Maryville yesterday, the parade honoring Ken Oberkell, Cardinal third baseman, will be shown on Channel 1 of South-Western Cable TV at 1 p.m. and 6 p.m. Tuesday. The parade also will be shown Wednesday at 1 p.m. and Thursday at 1 p.m. and Friday at 8:30 p.m.

The two sides of Richard Crenna

By ALAN L. GANSBERG
Copley News Service

HOLLYWOOD — Fans of RICHARD CRENNNA will be seeing two sides of the actor this fall. His "It Takes Two" comedy series is set to premiere on ABC while he faces the moviegoers with a very dramatic role in "First Blood," which stars SYLVESTER STALLONE.

"First Blood" was a very difficult film to do," said Crenna of the movie that premieres Oct. 22.

"Physically it was incredible. We filmed it in Vancouver, Canada, in midwinter. I think the temperature went to 30 or 40 degrees below zero.

"There was also a lot of action. Stallone had to do a good portion of his scenes in nothing but a tank top. How he survived is beyond me."

The film focuses on a Vietnam veteran who seven years after his discharge is picked up as a vagrant in a small town. When put in jail he ignites into violence, resorting to all he's been taught as a Green Beret. He becomes a programmed killing machine and Crenna is the Army officer who trained him and is then sent by the Pentagon to defuse him.

"I think young people will respond to this picture," Crenna said. "It's filled with action and also says something about Vietnam veterans in terms of the reception this country has given them."

He further expects that it will be a controversial film in a number of quarters.

Crenna also did work on "Table for Five" starring Jon Voight this year, so it's even a bigger change to be doing a three-camera tape TV series such as "It Takes Two" with PATTY DUKE ASTIN. It's his sixth series.

"I decided to do this series because of the material," he explained. "Plus, it was written by Susan Harris, who wrote and created 'Soap' and other innovative programs. It's something that is amusing and has some intellect."

"Two" is about a surgeon whose wife has become an assistant district attorney after many years of marriage and two teen-age children. It is not about a man who doesn't want his wife to have a job — Crenna's character encouraged her to go back to school. But the husband "is uncomfortable that the traditional family roles have been altered," says Crenna.

"We agreed when we went into this that Patty and I would not be one of those yelling, hollering couples," Richard indicated.

And he knows about marriage. In real life he's been with the same lady for 25 years.

Even ROSEMARY CLOONEY is praising SONDRA LOCKE's performance in the upcoming TV movie about the famous singer. Rosemary says she's amazed Locke can lip sync so well.

MICHAEL CAINE and ALAN KING will team together as the stars of "Love Rio." King is also one of the producers. And yes, they'll be filming in Brazil.

Trying the series game again is BEATRICE ARTHUR, who will star in a comedy pilot entitled "Amanda's by the Sea." The deal is with ABC.

Star identifies with TV role

By ALAN L. GANSBERG

HOLLYWOOD — Just a few short years ago she was on TV as a law student with a young son. Now, MEREDITH BAXTER-BIRNEY will be back in the fall as the mother of high school age children on the new NBC series "Family Ties."

Meredith isn't the least bit concerned about portraying the mother of three. In fact, she relishes the assignment and the series.

"It's refreshing to play something I identify with," she said. "Playing the mother is a big part of my life. I have a son 15, and two daughters, 13 and 7. I'm interested in parenting. It's a big job. On the series I play a woman who is also an architect, but you work at being an architect. You live being a parent."

"Family Ties" is the story of parents who still have one foot in their activist days of the 1960s. But their children have switched roles — they are conservative. The son even wears three-piece suits to school.

"I took this series because it is just so good," Meredith remarked. "In fact, I don't think of it as a situation comedy. It's a lot better than what you usually think of when you turn on a half-hour comedy."

Plus, she likes working on video tape. When a show is filmed, the actors may have to work 12-hour days or more. With "Family Ties," Meredith finds herself working from 10 a.m. to 5:00 p.m.

Since she has a family to think of, that works out well. Husband DAVID BIRNEY also has a new series, "St. Elsewhere," on NBC but Meredith insists, "We spend time as a family unit. That's important."

Home is a house in the hills overlooking Santa Monica. Meredith reports that the Birneys lead "a quiet life. We don't entertain much. A big evening could be dinner and a movie."

Meredith is a vegetarian and notes that David "has to go out if he wants a steak. The family doesn't eat meat often."

In fact, the eating habits of Meredith have tied in with the character she will be playing. At her home, Meredith will not allow sugar. On the series, her character is the same way. When production began, Meredith insisted that the producers take the sugar bowls off the table, claiming that the mother would not allow sugar anyway. Products that are pictured will also reflect that the family does not use refined sugar.

"I'm convinced that this is a very valuable series," she concluded. "If the audience comes to it, that's great. If not, it's their loss."

Three years ago LAURENCE OLIVIER and JACQUELINE BISSET made a film called "Inchon" about the Korean War. Now, it appears that the picture actually may be distributed to theaters, since MGM-UA has acquired the rights. One of the stumbling blocks was the news that the REV. SUN YUNG MOON of "Moonies" fame had been one of the investors in the picture.

Cancer is often curable.
The fear of cancer
is often fatal.

If you're afraid of cancer...you're not alone. But some people are so afraid that they won't go to the doctor when they suspect something's wrong. They're afraid the doctor might "find something." This kind of fear can prevent them from discovering cancer in the early stages when it is most often curable. These people run the risk of letting cancer scare them to death.

Gleeb Paul Lowney / Steve McKinstry

Say something wise and insightful. Does it have to be original? No. "I'm making peace with myself somewhere between my ambitions and my limitations...it's a step backward in the right direction." Who said that? It's from a play written by John Patrick. That's certainly wise and insightful - too bad you didn't write it. I could have thought of those exact words. Why didn't you? Nobody asked me to.
